

All the 'News That Fit to Print.

The Daily Republican.

What Is Home Without the Republican

Vol. 9. No. 63.

Rushville, Indiana, Saturday Evening, May 25, 1912.

Single Copies, 2 Cents.

THREETALES MEN MAY BE EXCUSED

Prospects Are That Number Will be Allowed to go by Judge Blair Monday.

IS SAID THEY HAVE REASONS

No Certainty as to Time When Harris Jury Will be Selected—Grind Begins Monday.

The grind to get a jury to hear the murder case of the State against Paul Harris will be started again Monday morning at eight-thirty o'clock in the circuit court. When court adjourned yesterday afternoon at four o'clock there were only four talesmen left on which to draw.

Although the jury appears to be a little nearer completion than it was Wednesday, there is no certainty as to when twelve men will be finally accepted by the prosecution and Paul Harris' attorneys.

There are said to be at least three talesmen of the twelve left in the jury box yesterday afternoon who will most likely be excused by Judge Blair Monday. One of the talesmen is a member of the county council which will be in special session Monday. The session may last two days. It is understood that he can not serve as a juror when he should be attending the council meeting.

There is another one of the twelve who has very weak eyes and who will most probably be allowed to go by the court Monday. It is understood that he has not made any special effort to be excused but that Judge Blair understands he would probably not be physically able to undergo the ordeal of hearing the evidence in the murder trial.

There is still another talesman who may be excused on account of the predicament in which his family is left by his absence. He has no helper on his farm and when he is away there is no one left except his wife and small boy. He has a number of cows to be milked and many chores about his farm which can not be done by his wife or son.

In case these three are dismissed renewed complications will arise for there will be three additional places to fill with talesmen who are acceptable to both sides. The time the wedding process will take can not be estimated.

The twelve men in the box when court adjourned last evening were: J. Arnold Mull, Walker; James M. Spillman, Anderson; T. S. Mills, Jackson; A. O. Gordon, Washington; John C. Benning, Orange; Rufus Rhodes, Jackson; Cassius King, Anderson; O. E. Rich, Center; Julius Miller, Center; W. P. King, Noble; Rue Miller, Walker, and Ellis Culbertson, Noble.

The jury was very acceptable to the defense yesterday afternoon when it was passed to the State, it is said. But there is no assurance when it will be acceptable again. There are said to be at least eight of the twelve who are acceptable to both the State and defense.

The twelve talesmen were back in court long enough this morning to show that the examination of talesmen was begun and the case was continued until Monday. All of the out-of-town lawyers in the case went home last night to remain until Monday and the local attorneys only were in court this morning.

The criminal docket shows the following notation today in the Harris case: "Jurors examined touching their qualifications to serve as jurors in this cause having been begun and now in progress and there not being sufficient time in which to complete the trial of this cause and this being the last day of this present April term 1912, it is now ordered that the term shall be extended until the close of the trial."

Whenever the jury is finally selected the opening statement for the prosecution will be made by John H. Kiplinger. He will outline the State's case, showing what it will attempt to prove and how it bears on the defense.

Immediately following him Henry Spaan of Indianapolis will make the opening statement for the defense. He will outline in detail the evidence which will be introduced to prove that Paul Harris is innocent, and attempt to show where it disproves the theory of the State.

The State will introduce its evidence. Continued on page 5.

CATTLE BUYERS ENJOY SMOKER

A. P. Walker's Entertainment at Social Club Is Featured by Minstrel.

YOUNG WOMEN PARTICIPANTS

The smoker given last evening at the Social Club by A. P. Walker for the visiting cattle buyers and club members was featured by a minstrel in which the Misses Norma Smith, Hazel Lytle, Florence Frazee, Georgia Wyatt and Marie Crosby took part. Miss Crosby acted as interlocutor. The entertainment consisted of parodies on popular songs and jokes on local men and the visitors. The opening chorus consisted of three songs. "Oh, you Walker Day," "Oh, you Beautiful Cow" and "Everybody Milks in I. O. A." Each of the participants sang a solo. The young women were dressed as milk maids in the opening chorus.

Following the minstrel talks were made by both visitors and local men. Will C. McColgin introduced the speakers. About 150 attended the smoker.

LOCALS EXPECT VICTORY

Hope to Defeat Connersville In Opening Game.

The ball game tomorrow between Connersville and the local team will be called at three o'clock. The opening game of the season is expected to attract a large crowd. Many faces familiar to local fans will be seen in the line of both teams. John Geraghty has decided to play and will be seen in center field. "Pig" Yazel will pitch and "Hop" Spacy will work behind the bat. On the Connersville team are two well known players. Feigart and Thomas. The locals will line up as follows: Spacy, catcher; Yazel, pitcher; Heyl, first; Gunning, second; Pea, third; Carter, short; Waybright, left; Geraghty, center and Jordan, right.

FINLY GRAY IS HOME.

Taking advantage of a dull season in the house of representatives, Congressman Finly H. Gray is in Connersville to spend a few days. It will be his first trip home since he went to Washington last November.

SELECT DELEGATES.

The following delegates for the Sixth Indiana district were selected at the State G. A. R. encampment at South Bend this week to go to the National encampment at Los Angeles, California. Delegates, James C. Bennett, Shelbyville; Frank Brown, Rushville; alternates, W. A. Young, Rushville; S. B. Morris, Shelbyville.

BANNER BULL BRINGS $5,000

Draconis of St. Saviour's is Auctioned off For Highest Price Since 1910.

WALKER ANNUAL JERSEY SALE

Daughter of Famous Plymouth, Who Sold For $9,000 in 1910, Range Around $500.

Blinking, brown-eyed, sleek-coated Jerseys were paraded around the sawdust ring at the eighth annual auction at Jersey Isle stock farm, west of Rushville today. But when Draconis of St. Saviour, the banner bull of the sale was led into the ring, it was the visiting fanciers that were blinking. He went to Whitford Brothers, Kendallville, Ind., for $5,000. The bidding on the bull was spirited.

At two-thirty o'clock there yet remained twenty-five head to be sold. The prices this year were believed to be better than the average last year. Many a beautiful heifer brought $500 under the hammer.

Up until about three o'clock only three head had been sold to Rush county men. John P. Boyd of Jersey City paid $485 for Eminent's Plymouth, a heifer which was distinguished because of her sire, the famous Plymouth Lad. This was the only animal Mr. Boyd had bid on up to that time.

Charles H. Kelso, living south of Glenwood was the other buyer from Rush county. He paid $85 for a calf born the middle of May and $55 for another young one by Oxford Lad's Finance.

The daughters of The Plymouth Lad, which sold at the 1910 auction here for $9,000 were especially praised by the auctioneer today, and the most of them brought fancy prices. The blood of The Plymouth Lad was very common in the sale. He is the next to the banner bull of the Jersey Isle stock farm, Derry's Golden Jolly, bringing $11,000 in 1909. Last year the best price was $3,100, paid for Penitence's Raleigh, the banner bull. G. R. Williams of Magnolia, Ill., was probably the largest buyer today. He paid $450 for Jessie Plymouth, $225 for Plymouth Roze and $450 for another one of the daughters of The Plymouth Lad.

Dr. L. Little of Clark, Nebraska, paid $90 for a little calf a month old by Oxford Lad's Finance. P. A. Reid of Richmond got Plymouth Lad's Princess for $500. She is not yet two years old and is a daughter of The Plymouth Lad. Another Indiana buyer was J. Q. Helman of Union City. Plymouth's Graceful Beauty, by the famous sire, went to him for $220. W. R. Pomerene of Cleveland, O., paid $150 for Trouville's Golden Gate. Cowslip's Golden Fly went to J. B. Chambers & Son of West Alexandria, Pa., for $155.

Stockwell Girl's Noble, a bull that was touted to be a fine animal was sold to James McConnell of Carlisle, Ind., for $200. Golden Trinity Duchess, it was thought, would win the banner for high priced cows as she brought $700. Gamboge Knight's Lass, another fine cow, almost five years of age, sold for $500.

The will of the late Mrs. Ann H. Hunt was probated in circuit court this morning. Miss Florence Hunt was named executrix. Eric C. Morgan of Knightstown, administrator of the estate of John M. Beavers, the aged recluse, who committed suicide several weeks ago, has filed a petition to sell the personal property in the estate at private sale.

WILL NOT EXCUSE CULTURE ALONE

Dr. F. E. Taylor of Indianapolis Disparages Culture Only When it is for Service.

THE COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Lives Must be Built Into Life of the World Beyond to Achieve Success—Large Crowd.

"I have no sympathy for culture simply for culture's sake, whatever that means," declared Dr. Frederick E. Taylor, pastor of the First Baptist church, Indianapolis, at the Main Street Christian church last night in what was conceded to be without parallel in the last few years' history of high school commencement addresses in Rushville.

"There are so many young men and women, who want a touch of this and a touch of that. Here's a girl that wants a little French, German, Latin and Spanish. I have no complaint against the study of languages, but so many wish it so that they can merely say they can talk in that language.

"There is a tendency abroad today to get culture just for the sake of being cultured. In only one case is culture excusable, and that is when it is culture for service. Young men and women are educated so they can live and work and the world will be raised to a higher plane for their having lived. Any other idea of culture is erroneous."

Dr. Taylor said at the outset that the audience was due for two disappointments. He said he had been advertised as a great orator, and that the chairman told him he was expected to talk an hour. Because he could not fill the first requirement and did not intend to fill the second, he said, the audience might be disappointed.

Dr. Taylor dwelt for a time on "the largest class ever graduated from Rushville high school." He said the class should feel proud, as should the community for turning out such a fine bunch of young people.

Dr. Taylor told of the man who had graduated from Yale and sent back home in a telegram the simple word, "Educated." He said too often a false idea of the word was gained. Such persons as this, the minister declared, will find they have missed the idea. It requires many years after all the diplomas have been received to prepare for the battle of life, he said, and the graduate has just begun to build. Dr. Taylor advised them to make sacrifices if they would succeed.

"I often wonder why some boys and girls go to college anyway," continued Dr. Taylor. "I have a firm belief that God has planned a life for everyone, and I believe every minister here will agree with me. Every boy and girl should find his plane. If he or she does not find that plane he is bound to make a failure. You must plan life a long way in the distance to make a success. The popular tendency is to plan life for the next day and the next day. That boy or girl who does not care to write failure in the end should plan ahead."

Dr. Taylor recalled a story of a man who after some years, evolved a plan of life and wrote his three mottoes in the back of his Bible. They were: It is the duty of every man to serve God; God undertakes the care of man, and therefore man should not be afraid of anything.

"Live with a vengeance and die with a snap," Dr. Taylor said was the rule for the man or woman who would achieve things to follow. "No man ever makes good on eight hours a day. Not that a man ought not to have an eight-hour day and a half-day holiday Saturdays to play, but the man who expects to succeed must burn midnight oil. Edison worked for forty-eight hours at a time without food or sleep. The eighteen-hour train between New York and Chicago runs no faster than some other trains, but it makes fewer stops. That's the lesson I want you to get. "The men who influence the world are the type of man I am trying to suggest to you. There is nothing like losing one's life in other men's lives. Martin Luther was such a man. He forgot Martin Luther and was willing to sacrifice himself.

"No man is ever alive until he's dead. No man ever amounts to very much unless he forgets himself. Silas Marner found life because he forgot himself." Continued on page four.

CARL MORRIS SINGS WEDNESDAY NIGHT

New York Baritone Who Scores Success in Richmond May Festival May be Heard Here.

TICKETS ON SALE MONDAY

Carl Morris, who made a signal success in the sixth annual Richmond May festival which closed last night, will give a full concert at the coliseum next Wednesday evening. Tickets will be placed on sale at the drug stores Monday. The Richmond Palladium says of Mr. Morris' initial appearance there:

Carl Morris was heard in solo in this composition for the first time and with peculiar impressiveness in his declamatory role of "The High Priest," this young baritone having a voice of extraordinary vibrancy and penetrating power and of distinctiveness of quality unusual as it is striking in tonal effect, and his further appearances are looked forward to with interest.

FINED FOR WIFE DESERTION.

Scott Lawson a second hand dealer in Knightstown, was arrested a few days ago on the charge of wife desertion and was fined $10 and costs in Squire Davis' court. Lawson's wife, Mrs. Laura Lawson, recently filed suit for a divorce in the Henry circuit court, charging cruel and inhuman treatment.

WILLIAM GORDON TAKES MEDAL FOR MOST INGENIOUS EXCUSE

Posey Township Talesman Shows Court Stone Removed From Bladder as Proof of Illness.

SEEKS HIS AUDIENCE 3 DAYS

Many ingenious methods have been employed by talesmen to be excused from jury service in the Harris murder trial, but there is a talesman yet to be found who had a more unique excuse than William Gordon of Posey township.

He was the last man called before court adjourned yesterday afternoon and he was hastily excused by the court on account of sickness. Judge Blair knew the reason, and it was a perfectly legitimate one, too, as physicians who were in the case will testify.

Mr. Gordon was operated on a year ago last July by Dr. J. C. Sexton and a stone as large as an ordinary hen's egg was removed from his bladder. Mr. Gordon has been in very poor health ever since. He was

THREE CONTESTS IN CONVENTION

Democrats Have Easy Time Nominating County Ticket—Oliver C. Morris Heads List.

A. R. HOLDEN FOR AUDITOR

Policeman Walter Enters Race For Sheriff at Late Hour and is Defeated.

Ben L. Smith called the Democratic county convention to order this afternoon and immediately asked for the reports of the committees appointed at the morning session. The committee on credentials stated that "peace and harmony" prevailed and there was no contested seats. The report of the organization committee which was adopted, named J. T. Arbuckle of this city, permanent chairman and Will L. Newbold, secretary.

The first nomination was that of representative. Only one name that of O. C. Norris of this city was presented to the convention. The Rushville township delegation slipped a cog and forgot to place his name in nomination so Ripley had the honor. Mr. Norris was nominated by acclamation.

The next was that of clerk of the Rush circuit court. A. M. Taylor of Anderson had no opposition and was nominated by the same route as Norris.

Will M. McBride, the present county treasurer, was renominated by acclamation. His name was presented by Judge Douglas Morris. Mr. McBride thanked the convention for the honor bestowed upon him and also for the honor of two years ago. "I promised the people two years ago to give the best that was in me at all times and how far short of that pledge I have fallen they will judge this fall."

The names of Allen R. Holden and Will Dill were presented for the nomination of auditor. Both were named from Rushville township. This was the first of three contests to come before the convention.

The resolutions adopted by the convention endorsed the nominees of Continued on page 5.

summoned along with the special venire of a hundred talesmen to appear in court Wednesday morning.

For three long days Mr. Gordon sat around the court house expecting to be called any moment. He tried to get audience with Judge Blair but found that impossible because only the determined talesmen were able to talk with the court, so busy was he.

But yesterday afternoon during the long intermission while the attorneys for the State were conferring, Judge Blair was out in the anteroom and Mr. Gordon boosted up his nerve enough to tell the court his ailment. He recited the tale of his troubles, and then for proof he exhibited the stone which was removed from his bladder. He has carried it, wrapped in cotton in a little box for almost two years. While Mr. Gordon was showing the stone to the court, Dr. Lowell M. Green, who assisted in the operation, appeared and testified that he would swear the talesman's story was true. Judge Blair thought that excuse was about as legitimate as any he had heard.

CHURCH NEWS

Little Flat Rock Christian church—Services each Lord's day at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Preaching by the pastor, the Rev. Talmage De-frees at every service unless other-wise announced. Bible school at 10 a. m. and Young Peoples meeting at 6:30 p. m.

Regular services at St. Mary's Catholic church, conducted by the Rev. M. J. Lyons. Masses at 8:00 and 10:00 a. m.; Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. and Vespers at 3:00 p. m.

There will be preaching every other Sunday at the Glenwood M. E. church. Morning service at 10:30 o'clock, evening services at 7 o'clock and Sunday school at 9:30 o'clock.

Services at the Main Street Christian church will be as follows: Bible school at 9:15 a. m. Morning service at 10:30; sermon subject, "Battles Won and Battles Waging." The Joel Wolfe Post G. A. R. and kindred orders will attend in a body. Junior C. E. at 2:30 p. m.; C. E. at 6:30 p. m. Evening preaching service at 7:30 p. m.; subject, "Obedience to the Vision." All are cordially in- vited. Special music at each ser- vice.

The Rev. W. H. Wylie will preach the first of a series of ser- mons on the Lord's Prayer Sunday morning at the St. Paul M. E. church. The subject of the first sermon is "Our Heavenly Father." In the even- ing he will preach on "The Meaning of Memorial Day." The public is in- vited and all old soldiers are espe- cially urged to attend.

First Church of Christ, Scien- tist, will have their usual meeting at their room over the Farmers Trust Company.

The Salvation Army—Holiness meeting Sunday morning at 10:30; Sunday school at 2:30 p. m.; Young Peoples meeting at 6:30 p. m.; Hal- lelujah wind up for the day at 7:30. Tuesday night salvation meeting at 7:30; Wednesday night, open air meeting; Thursday night, salvation meeting at 7:30 o'clock. Saturday night and afternoon open air meet- ings. All indoor meetings are held at their hall in South Pearl street.

The Rev. N. D. Webber will preach next Sunday morning at the Fairview Christian church on "Heroines of the War of '60-'65." In the evening the sermon will be on Foreign Missions. All are cordially invited to attend especially soldiers, their widows and relatives. A pro- tracted meeting will begin June 9.

Usual services at the United Presbyterian church Sunday. The Rev. A. W. Jamieson, pastor, will take for the subject of his morning sermon, "A Worthy Guest." In the evening he will talk on "Persuading Men." A cordial welcome to all the services.

TRIMS CORN
TOO CLOSELY

ess the partial count the

with don't nd desired

all as to now have but will

as the places

Mrs. F. W. Coers of Shelby County Causes Blood Poisoning Which Results in Her Death.

RELATED IN THIS COUNTY

Physicians Worked Valiantly, But Could Not Stop Spread of Dead Disease.

Mrs. Katherine Coers, wife of Fred
W. Coers of Liberty township, Shelby county, died at her home last midnight of blood poisoning, brought on by an injury to her foot which was caused by trimming a corn too closely. Mrs. Coers is extensively related in this county and is well known here.
Mrs. Coers was troubled with a very sore corn on her left foot and two weeks ago she set about as much of it as possible of trimming the

Raymond
Corn Remedy

A Liquid, Easy to Use
Will Do the Work

No Danger

Hargrove & Mullin,
Druggists

HE SAYS HE HAS
THE DELEGATES

Taft Expresses Certainty of the Nomination.

ORGANIZATION BEHIND HIM

Not Only Has the President a Sufficient Number of Delegates Already Assured to Give Him the Coveted
Plum at Chicago, but the Republican Organization Will Stand by Him, He Tells the Jerseyites.

Hoboken, May 25.—The crowds that greeted the president on his second day in New Jersey were noticeably larger and more enthusiastic than those that turned out on Thursday.
His reception in several counties was unusually warm. He put more fire and life into his utterances, urging Republican voters to safeguard the country against "the Roosevelt menace," and reiterated repeatedly that he has the nomination in Chicago—that he has a sufficient number of delegates and the Republican organization will stand by him.

The president was more pointed in his attacks on Colonel Roosevelt. In one or two of them he seemed to intimate that it is more important to the country that Roosevelt should be defeated at Chicago than the Republican party should be returned to power next November. In these intimations the president, of course, had in mind Roosevelt's veiled threat to bolt in the event of Taft being named for president.

Claims of Taft Leaders.

Assurances which the Taft leaders in New Jersey brought to the president may have had something to do with the more spirited character of his campaign. They told Mr. Taft that they were counting on carrying at least seven of the twelve congressional districts and that they also had hopes of landing the delegates-at-large.

A considerable flurry was caused in Republican camps in New Jersey through the circulation of a report that the president at a luncheon at State Senator Freylinghausen's home near Somerset, had said that he had the delegates and would be nominated provided money was not used. The president, when his attention was called to this story, denied vigorously that he had made any reference to money.

BIG OVATION

Jersey Continues to Give the Colonel a Warm Welcome.

Camden, N. J., May 25.—Theodore Roosevelt's march through New Jersey is a continued triumph. Big enthusiasm opened it Thursday and yesterday enthusiasm burst out into a wave of popular acclaim. The whole of the south land of the state were out in the roadways and the farm houses, in the streets of the towns and the lawns of their houses, in the villages, baseball parks and fair grounds, waving flags, dressed in their best,
cheering with a gaiety that sparkled.

The colonel in his nomination campaign has received nothing like it.
As far as Jersey's vote for the colonel next Tuesday is concerned, he has got it already, these crowds said.
Former Governor Fort, who is in the Roosevelt party and a hot rooster, declared that in his forty years' political experience in the state, he had not seen such a tremendous ovation.

The colonel left New York at 9 o'clock in the morning and started his campaign at Burlington, travelled on through Hammonton and Egg Harbor to Atlantic City. The coast resort mobbed and piled about him, thronged him on the million-dollar pier, and when the colonel was finally pulled and hauled by his audience through the fighting, jostling crowds, he looked wilted for once and his collar had well nigh disappeared. From Atlantic City he went to Millville in his special train, from there going by automobile most of the way through the farming and grape-growing region of Vineland, Bridgeton, Glassboro and Woodbury to Camden. He spoke at the armory in Camden, to another great throng, and finished up the day with a speech at Trenton at 9:30 in the evening.

Young Girl Captures Intruder.

Grand Junction, Col., May 25.—Pearl Hopp, aged eighteen, forced a tramp caught peeping through her window to walk at the point of a revolver for a quarter of a mile, where he was turned over to the police.

MAKES PIMPLES GO

Remarkable How Zemo Clears the Face of Pimples and all Other Blemishes.

With the finger tips apply a little Zemo to the skin, then ago the pimples and blackheads vanish. Zemo is a liquid not a smear, leaves no trace.
Just simply sings in and does the work.
You will be astonished to find how quickly eczema, rash, dandruff, itch, liver spots, salt rheu. and all other skin diseases are cured.
Zemo is put up by the E. W. Rose Medicine Co., St. Louis Mo., and is regularly sold by all druggists at $1 for the large bottle, but you can get a liberal size trial bottle for only 25 cents. And this trial bottle is guaranteed. You surely will find Zemo a wonder. Get a bottle from F. E. Wolcott's Drug Store.

AMERICANS IN CUBA ALARMED

Their Interests Reported to Be Suffering Materially.

INTERVENTION NOW EXPECTED

From Every Quarter Comes News of Fresh Uprisings, Negroes Being Encouraged by Palpable Weakness of Island Government—President Gomez Being Denounced on All Sides
as Instigator of the Trouble.

Havana, May 25.—There is no doubt here that intervention must follow, as the negro revolutionists are getting beyond control. Stocks went up on the report of the dispatch of marines from the United States to Cuba.
All business men are looking for the downfall of the present regime, which paralyzes everything.

The government continues to declare that the negro uprising is dying out. General Estenoz, who is marching forward, declares that the soldiers who are following the revolutionists are killing the negroes. His order,
"Fall in" is carrying along hundreds of negroes who are flocking to his standard. From all sides come reports of persons fleeing to the big towns because the negroes are threatening crimes like that committed against the white school mistress in Santiago province, whom ten negroes outraged. The rebels attacked an American sugar mill at Santa Cecilia, near Guantanamo. They smashed all the machinery.
All the big mills in the Santiago region have shut down, which means the loss of many hundreds of thousands of dollars of American capital.

The town of El Caney, which is thirty miles from Santiago, was looted, the negroes carrying off $100,000 in cash and merchandise. From every quarter comes news of fresh uprisings, the negroes seemingly encouraged by reports of American intervention.
Meanwhile the newspapers, many Americans, Spaniards and conservatives, are hinting that President Gomez, who they allege was the instigator of the trouble, is now playing both sides, his only desire being to get out of Cuba with the fortune he has accumulated. Women from rural districts are being gathered into the cities since the negro rebels assaulted the white school teacher near Santiago.

Americans here condemn the dilatory measures of sending only one transport and two gunboats from the United States. The latest news is that bridges have been blown up by the rebels to prevent the government troops from returning to Havana.

LONG STRUGGLE OVER

Methodist Episcopal Contest Concluded on Twenty-Sixth Ballot.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 25.—The quadrennial conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in session at Minneapolis completed its selection of eight new resident bishops when Dr.
Wilbur Patterson Thirkield of Washington, D. C., was elected to the epis-copacy on the twenty-sixth ballot. The conference had been balloting for bishops more than a week, with practically all the work at a standstill in the meantime. The election of Dr.
Thirkield had been practically a certainty since the withdrawal from the race of R. E. Jones, colored, the candidate of the negro faction.

Rev. Franklin M. Leete of the Detroit conference and Rev. R. J. Cooke of New York were elected to be bishops on the twenty-third ballot and twenty-fourth ballots respectively.

Because of the great amount of business yet to be transacted the conference voted to make next Wednesday instead of Tuesday the date of final adjournment, as previously decided.

COMING TOO STRONG

Congressman Sends $60 Telegram to Sweetheart at Public Expense.

Washington, May 25.—There was a lively tilt in the house over a proposal of Representative Fitzgerald of New York that the house put a stop to members sending private telegrams at the expense of the government. Mr.
Fitzgerald charged that the members were guilty of petty graft in this connection and declared that the sending of private telegraph messages had been much abused. He told of an unnamed member who sent his sweetheart a message that cost the government $60. The house defeated Mr.
Fitzgerald's amendment, however, by a vote of 140 to 102.

Prof. Chas. W. Stewart, the very well known musician of Logansport, doctored for kidney trouble for many years and still was not relieved. A friend advised him to take Foley Kidney Pills which he did. He says:
"They acted promptly, my backache left me, I gained strength, appetite improved, kidneys strengthened, and action became normal. Foley Kidney Pills entirely cured me." F. B. Johnson & Co.

INSPECTORS GETS 3 DAYS.

(Richmond Palladium.)

Although the opinion given out yesterday by Attorney General Honan, was not compiled with strictly by the county authorities in the matter of paying inspectors of boards of resignation, yet the county officials believe that the meaning of the resignation law was observed; says
the Richmond Palladium.

According to the attorney general's opinion in case the inspector of a board used a fraction of a day in performing duties connected with the registration, such as going to auditor's office for paper and supplies, the attorney general held that he should be paid such a fraction of a day's work, "at the rate of $4 a day."

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners believed that the inspectors were entitled to a full day's pay for coming after their supplies, posting bills and notices about the registration, securing rooms in which the session could be held and arranging for meals. They also believed that the inspectors should be paid a full day's wages for returning to the auditor's office with the report of the results.
Consequently in each of the sixty-four precincts in the county received $12 for his service, three days being allowed him.

As defined by the Attorney General the length of a day is to be considered in such payment as that period of time from one morning to the next or twenty-four hours.

J. A. Shanks, Lewisburg, Ind., enjoyed a visit from his grandchildren.
Both suffered from a severe cold and coughed at night. The medicine prescribed failed to stop their coughing so Mr. Shanks took the matter into his own hands and says: "I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and after a few doses they went to sleep and slept throughout the night without coughing." F. B.
Johnson & Co.

"HURK" STIERS IS PAPA.

Newcastle Courier: A nine-pound baby girl arrived this morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stiers on Church street. Mr. Stiers celebrated the event by breaking all gymnastic records at the Maxwell gymnasium, where he is the athletic director.

TO PLAN FOR FUNERAL.

There will be a special meeting at the Woodmen hall tonight at eight o'clock to arrange for attending the funeral of McClelland McDaniel of Arlington. A large attendance is requested.

Mrs. N. J. McPike, 470 Huntington St., Wabash, had severe kidney trouble, resulting from catarrh, which apparently poisoned her entire system.
While at its worst she began taking Foley Kidney Pills and says: "They seemed to give immediate relief. The first few doses stopped the backache, and eventually cured the inflammation and strengthened the kidneys. I cannot recommend them too highly." F.
B. Johnson & Co.

A $350 Piano at Your Own
Price. See Advertisement.

::TIRE REPAIRING::

I am prepared to do all kinds of Vulcanizing such as Automobile, Motorcycle and Bicycle Tires. Also Retreading on short notice.
ALL WORK GUARANTEED
GIVE ME A TRIAL
ED. L. BEER
:: OVER MOCK'S SECOND HAND STORE ::

THE MADDEN BROTHERS CO.

MACHINISTS
REPAIR WORK IS OUR SPECIALTY
Have your old Machinery repaired and made good as new. Steam and Gas Engine Repairing a Specialty. Call and see our St.
Mary's Semi-Automatic Gas and Gasoline Engines before you buy.
2½, 4 and 7 Horse Power. Built for hard service on the farm.
We Grind and Sharpen Lawn Mowers, Mowers, Sickles, Plow Points, Cutter Knives, etc
Phone 1632 517 to 519 W. Second St

POSEY STOCK FARM

Season of 1912

ESS H. KAY

Race Record 2:00¼ Pacing.
WILL MAKE THE SEASON OF 1912 AT
$50 TO INSURE.

WESTERN HORSEMAN

Race Record 2:24¼ Trotting.
WILL MAKE THE SEASON OF 1912 AT $15 TO INSURE.

ADMIRAL RED, 34031

Race Record 2:09¼ Trotting.
WILL MAKE THE SEASON OF 1912 AT $25.00 TO INSURE A MARE IN FOAL.

CHYPRE, 1084

BELGIAN DRAFT STALLION.

Chypre is a bay, weighs 2000 pounds.
WILL MAKE THE SEASON OF 1912 AT $15.00 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT.

AVENGER, 6640

IMPORTED ENGLISH HACKNEY.

Dark Chestnut, white offhind fetlock. Weighs 1300 pounds.
Breeder, W. Forrester Addie, Powis Castle Park, Welshpool, England. Sire, General Goodon 2084. Dam, Queen of the Valley 8402 (Vol. XII), by His Majesty 2513. He was foaled in 1901.
WILL MAKE THE SEASON OF 1912 AT $15.00 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT.

KENTUCKY PRIDE

LARGE SPANISH JACK.

Dark Brown Jack with mealy nose. One of the best and surest of breeders. His colts are uniformly large and fine.
$10.00 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT.

Parting with a mare or failure to attend regularly forfeits
the insurance money. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but will not be responsible should any occur.
Address all communications to or see

WILLIAM DAGLER & SON

SEE AB DENNING OR

PHONE 1152. RUSHVILLE, INDIANA.

IF IT IS A QUICK TRIP YOU WANT WE CAN GIVE IT TO YOU
INDIANAPOLIS & CINCINNATI TRACTION COMPANY

CONVENIENT SCHEDULES AND FAST TIME
Hourly Limited and Local Service

Direct connection made at Indianapolis with Fast Limited Trains on connecting lines for all points. Through tickets sold and your baggage checked to your destination.
1000 MILE BOOKS good on 33 lines in Indiana, Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky for sale, $17.50

LOW SPECIAL CAR RATES

For parties of 50 or more, rate of fare and one-half made for the round trip.

TO SHIPPERS

Mark, ship and consign your freight via our lines.
Fast Freight Service—Careful Handling—Prompt Deliveries
Express for delivery at Station handled on all passenger trains.
Adams Express Company operates over our lines.

SERVICE AND SATISFACTION

FASTEST INTERURBAN TRAIN SERVICE IN THE WORLD

New Stomach Relief Gets Country-Wide Endorsement

The new remedy for indigestion called "Digestit," has been found a certain quick relief and permanent remedy for stomach disorders. Letters from thousands who had suffered the tortures of indigestion and got relief from the use of "Digestit" are evidence of the merit. The enormous increase in demand from every part of the country is proof of its popularity. Bue you do not have to take anybody's word for it—try it yourself.

on an absolute guarantee, get a package and if you don't get relief you can get your money back for the asking. "Digestit" is a little tablet easy to swallow, and absolutely harmless. It digests all the food, prevents fermentation, stops gas formation, prevents stomach distress after eating, aids assimilation, relieves indigestion almost instantly and cures dyspepsia—50c.

Ask at F. E. Wolcott's Drug Store.

LEAGUERS PLAN LARGE MEETING

Dr. V. W. Tevis Will be One of Speakers at Annual District Convention.

WILL BE HELD IN ARLINGTON

Sessions Tuesday and Wednesday
June 4 and 5 Expected to be Best in History.

The twenty-second annual convention of the Epworth league of the Connersville district, Indiana conference, will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, June 4-5, in the Methodist church at Arlington. Dr. V. W. Tevis of this city, superintendent of the church district, will be in attendance and will make an address.

Many from this city are expecting to attend as the league of the St. Paul M. E. church is a very active organization. Miss Nelle Muire of this city, whose sister Winnifred is serving as a missionary in China, will deliver an address on "China." James Lock of the local league is also on the program.

Leading speakers for the convention will be Rev. Peter Jacobs, of Arlington Heights, Ill., who is one of the best informed Epworth league specialists in the church; W. J. Ramsey of Chattanooga, Tenn., who is a noted gospel singer, and the Rev. M. C. B. Mason. Pastors of the churches all over the district will be in attendance and the convention is expected to be the best in the history of the league.

The members of the district cabinet are the following: President, the Rev. J. T. Scull, Shelbyville; vice-presidents, Ruth Eaton of Arlington, James Locke of this city, Maude Addison of Carthage, and Hazel Gordon of Shelbyville; secretary, Grace L. Rake, College Corner, O.; treasurer, John W. Wadsworth, Connersville, and junior superintendent, Miss Ida Bottles, Connersville. The Rev. A. R. Jones is the Arlington pastor.

The program will be in full as follows:

TUESDAY MORNING.

Enrollment and assignment of delegates; district cabinet meeting.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

Service of song, led by W. J. Ramsey; devotion, C. N. Wilson.

Words of welcome, A. R. Jones; response, J. T. Scull; music.

Department of first vice-president, Mrs. Eaton; address, "Some Religious Difficulties of Young People," the Rev. Bert D. Beck.

Address, "Hints and Helps for Variety in the Devotional Service," Rev. Peter Jacobs.

General discussion, "First Department Problems"; consecration service, conducted by W. G. Clinton.

Appointment of committees; adjournment.

TUESDAY EVENING.

Service of song, led by W. J. Ramsey; devotions, A. R. Jones.

Lecture, "Youth and Its Crisis," the Rev. Peter Jacobs.

A "mix-up" social hour.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

A glad morning hour, conducted by W. J. Ramsey.

Service of song, led by W. J. Ramsey; devotions, U. M. Creath.

Department of second vice-president, James Locke; address, "China," Miss Nelle Muire.

Address, "Young People and Missions," William H. Wylie.

General discussion, "Second Department Problems."

"The Way Out," V. D. Hargitt; intermission.

Service of song.

Department of fourth vice-president, Mrs. Gordon; paper, "Practical Suggestions for the Social Department," Miss Grace Sanders.

Address, "Social Duties of the Epworth League," the Rev. Peter Jacobs.

General discussion, "4th Department Problems."

"The Way Out," G. B. Walls.

Dinner intermission.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

Service of song, led by W. J. Ramsey; devotions, H. D. Sterrett.

Department of third vice-president, Miss Maude Addison; address, the Rev. V. W. Tevis.

Paper, "Value of Mercy and Help Work," Mrs. Werle Vincent.

General discussion, "Third Department Problems."

"The Way Out," S. J. Cross; intermission.

Department of Junior League, Miss Ida Bottles; violin solo, Miss Elizabeth Tevis.

Paper, "What Shall be Taught Our Juniors?" Mrs. Vira Lockhart.

Address, "What Does Methodism Owe Her Children?" Frank Lenig.

General discussion.

"The Business End"—Our Treasurer, John W. Wadsworth; Our Secretary, Grace L. Bake.

Report of committees and election of officers.

Service of song, led by W. J. Ramsey.

Lecture, "Napoleon at Waterloo," the Rev. M. C. B. Mason, D. D.; final adjournment.

There are people in this town who unthinkingly neglect a "mere cold" though they would not otherwise expose their children or themselves to danger. Yet a cold neglected may develop into contagious diphtheria, bronchitis, and pneumonia. Use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly for it stops coughs quickly and cures colds. In contains no opiates and is safe for children. F. B. Johnson & Co.

ELECTED STATE CHAPLAIN.

The Rev. R. C. Jones of Knights-town was elected State chaplain of the G. A. R. at the annual encampment at South Bend yesterday. The Rev. Mr. Jones had been prominently mentioned for this place preceding the encampment.

COLORED MAN MARRIED.

Frank Richardson has returned from Anderson, and with him he brought a bride, who was formerly Miss Nellie Saunders of Anderson. No one knew of his intention when he left Rushville.

H. M. Winkler, 228 Huston Ave., Evansville, says he cannot recommend Foley Kidney Pills too highly. "They are a quick and permanent cure for kidney and bladder trouble. I took them regularly and my backache left me, my kidney action became regular and I am now perfectly well and have no more dizzy spells." F. B. Johnson & Co.

The capitol in Washington is 118 years old. The corner stone was laid in September, 1793. But, old as the building is, it is not yet finished and probably never will be.

How Much Will You Give

For This $350.00

JESSE FRENCH PIANO?

This elegant, massive instrument is fine enough for any home—4 ft. 9 in. high, full iron frame bronze finished, walnut case, ivory keys, full size.

Made in New Castle

Getting this through an advertising deal and having no place for it, we are going to sell it to the highest and best bidder by mail. The piano is now ready for inspection (at) A. P. Wagoners Piano Show Room (at) Poe's Jewelry store. Mr. Wagoner will gladly demonstrate this instrument to those interested. All bids opened

Saturday Noon,
June 15th

Mark your envelope "PIANO BID"—enclose your offer at your own price and terms, not less than $8 per month, and mail to

The Daily Republican
Rushville, Indiana

The butcher boy says

DINNER AINT WORTH A CUSS WITHOUT GOOD MEAT

The vegetarians won't agree with the butcher boy, but did you ever notice the peaked look on a vegetarians face.

We might add that dinner won't be worth much without good meat and the particular housewife knows she gets good meat at Kramer's market.

If you don't know give us a trial order today.

Fresh Fish For Sale

Phone 1569

H. A. Kramer

FLOWERS, GARDEN PLANTS

LET US FILL YOUR FLOWER BEDS, porch boxes, hanging baskets and vases with rich soil, choice flowers and vines to be found at the

RUSHVILLE FLORAL HOUSE

E. 11th St. R. L. FRIEND, Prop. Phone 1639

Jersey Green House

HAS

Garden and Bedding Plants and Vines Of All Kinds

F. WINDELER, Jersey City

Good Paint—Good Results

That's good logic. It's cause and effect. But it's poor logic, poor judgment, and poor economy to expect good results from poor paint.

The best good paint is

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT

PREPARED

MADE TO PAINT BUILDINGS WITH

It is made of the highest quality materials. It covers most, spreads easiest, looks best, wears longest, is most economical. It's a painter's paint. Made in forty-eight handsome shades. Color cards given upon request.

WE CONTRACT PAINTING

LET US FIGURE WITH YOU

F. E. WOLCOTT, Nyal's Druggist

FIRE and TORNADO INSURANCE

ABSTRACTS OF TITLE

FIDELITY AND SURETY BONDS

BURGLARY INSURANCE

GEORGE W. OSBORNE

205 Main St. Telephone 1236

You Should Know What Kind of Wheat is in the Flour You Use

Some are rich in gluten—some poor. Some are grown on fertile lands, some in impoverished soils. Some are raised from choice seed, some from inferior varieties.

"CLARK'S PURITY FLOUR"

is made from the CHOICEST of wheat, raised in the best county in the best state in the union. TRY A SACK.

RUSH COUNTY GRAVEL ROADS AND TAX EXEMPT STOCKS AND BONDS

BOUGHT and SOLD Every Day at MARKET PRICE

Home Phone 1296 A. C. BROWN Office Phone 1637

Office in New Bank Building, Over Aldridge's Grocery

THE MORE A MAN KNOWS

about an auto, the more he will appreciate the expert way in which we can put and keep it in good running order. No ordinary mechanic can adjust and repair any make of car. It requires the knowledge, skill and experience of a trained man to do this properly. We have the men, the facilities, etc., to satisfy the most exacting.

NORRIS MOTOR CO.

Rushville, Ind. Phone 1445

Purchase Advertised Articles.

FARM LOANS

FIVE PER CENT. AND PAY ANY TIME

I guarantee I can offer terms to borrowers that will save them money and will aid all I can in any way for interest of borrower.

B. F. MILLER

WE'LL PUT YOUR AUTO IN SHAPE

in the quickest time thorough work can be done. Bear in mind that we permit no careless or incomplete work here. We have earned a reputation for skillful auto repairing and that reputation we propose to maintain. Good work or none is our motto.

WILLIAM E. BOWEN

Phone 1384.

Purchase Advertised Articles.

THE MID-DAY LUNCHEON

need not be a formidable undertaking, especially when you can have so many easily prepared dishes as can be selected from the large variety of foods that come almost ready to serve. Many can be eaten cold. Many only need be heated and a large number make delicious salads or sandwiches. Take a look through our stock of canned meats, fish and other food preparations, all of the best guaranteed makes, luscious and delightful.

Fred Cochran, Grocer

105 First St. Phone 3293

6%

4%

We Can

Act as Trustee.
Act as Assignee.
Act as Executor.
Act as Guardian.
Act as Administrator.
Act as Receiver.
Write Your Surety Bond.
Furnish You Anything in Mortgages or Other Securities

We Issue Traveler's Checks.
We Invite Your Checking Account.
We Can Serve You in Many Other Ways.
WE PAY 4% ON TIME CERTIFICATES.

Farmers Trust Co.

3%2%

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN

Published Daily except Sunday by

The Daily Republican

Office in Republican Building, Northwest Corner Second and Perkins Streets.

Entered as second-class matter March 22, 1904, at the postoffice at Rushville, Indiana, under the act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

One week, delivered by carrier.....10
One year in the city by carrier.....$4.00
One year delivered by mail.....$3.00

J. FEUDNER, Editor.
ROY E. HARROLD, News Editor.
ALLEN C. KINER, City Editor.

TELEPHONE NUMBER, 1111.

Saturday, May 25, 1912.

SWAT THE FLY!

Clenliness is next to godliness, and self preservation is the first law of nature. Therefore swat the fly!

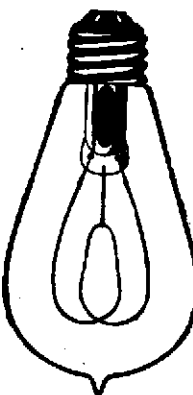

The Campaign Cigar.

Occasionally a legislature does something that is worth while. This does not happen so frequently that it should escape mention. In Ohio the legislature recently enacted a law prohibiting a candidate from giving away election campaign cigars. By passing that law the legislature earned the expenses of the entire session, for it is a law that is eminently worth while.

The campaign cigar, along with the speeding automobile, the Turkish cigarette, the tornado, the earthquake, the fire damp, the yellow fever microbe, the opium joint, and the Gila monster, is a menace to civilization.

ELECTRIC Light Bulbs

Mazda and Carbon

Hargrove & Mullin,
Druggists

Boy Scout
Suits

Boys' Indian
Suits

Boys' Bathing
Suits

Boys' Bathing Trunks

Wm. J. Mulno

tion and domestic happiness. It has been allowed to become a habit and to shed its odious personality broadcast. It has worked itself into the lifeblood of our republican form of government, like an insidious disease. There are times during a campaign when a wife dreads to have her husband home, for he comes laden with the aroma which resembles a combination between a second-hand New England boiled dinner and the glue factory.

There is no candidate who is going to spend much for the cigars he gives away. He realizes that men do not always vote as they smoke. If they like a candidate they will vote for him without the cigar. The chief value of these cigars is to add a sort of grim and unconquerable political hatred. They are of rope filler and brown paper wrapper and they stir up a feeling of belligerency which not even a leaky campaign torch or a two-hour campaign harangue can accomplish.

The campaign cigar is a delusion and a snare. They ruin the digestion of the constituent and create trouble in his household and they detract directly from the popularity of the candidate.

Some courage is rain proof. It is as undismayed by water as the proverbial duck's back. It defies the weather bureau, it ignores the importunities of tiresome old divinity called Jupiter Pluvius, it insists on knowing when "the straw hat season for men begins." This fact was proved in Rushville. One correspondent writes us that A. says the "official date" is May 25, while B. maintains it is June 25. Another does us the honor to think our decision would "set at rest many differences of opinion that are everywhere apparent at this time of the year." Apparent to who or what? Certainly not to the naked eye that directs its gaze toward headgear. That might better infer the rubber hat season had "officially" opened.

And, after all, why seek to perpetuate an old superstition of dates? The late Senator Stewart, of Nevada, had a harmless little habit of wearing a straw hat all the year round. Of course, a young reporter was found to tell the venerable legislator he would not dare do such a thing. "Young man," amiably chuckled the wealthy and wily survivors of many a battle with fortune, "I know you wouldn't. You haven't enough money to afford a straw hat in winter. I have." We detect purse pride in the senatorial retort. Why couldn't the reporter have afforded it if he would? At any rate, some time, has passed since then and much rain fallen. We fancy about three days running of clear weather now would settle for all inquiries whether the straw hat season had opened, "officially" or unofficially.

The country is shocked at the news of a railroad accident in which

Sam Sanderson Says:

That this was Democrat's day but the weather man did not turn on the water plug as he should.

a half dozen people are killed. And yet statistics show that fourteen people are killed every day by the railroads needlessly, not employes, but people who are where they have no need to be, and doing what they have no right to do, walking on the railroad track. The railroads give warning, in cities they have a police patrol, but the death rate continues. The death rate is highest of course, where trains are most frequent, and where there is a double track. The victim sees the approaching train, hears, as he supposes, its roar only, and steps over to the other track in front of a train coming up behind him. More frequently accidents of this sort happen in railroad yards where many engines are moving and switching.

Fourteen a day is a pretty big toll for this sort of carelessness and the public generally would do well to heed the warning and "keep off the track."

Senator Root is to be temporary chairman at Chicago. If he hides under the desk he will avoid getting hurt.

The manufacturers are taking steps to form a new party. Who has got left on his ambassadorship work.

Iowa Democrats assert that Bryan, if nominated, will poll from 500,000 to 1,000,000 more votes than any other Democratic candidate can get. Bryan proved this party superiority in all his three battles, but how about never getting votes enough?

Editorialesques.

Somebody called us by telephone this morning to inform us that with the Rev. J. B. Meacham, Ben L. Smith, Sam Trabue and Tom Arbuckle sitting on the platform at the Democratic convention today, it looked more like a Whitewater Presbytery meeting than anything else.

Of course, we wouldn't think of making such comment on our own record. The man who called asked that we not publish his name else we would.

There ought to be some kind of a quipp about the Jersey cattle sale and the Democratic convention being held on the same day, but we can't dope out any just now in our rush to get this Colyum out.

And Judge Blair might have stopped that Democratic band which was playing under his window this morning while he was trying to make a notation on the court docket.

Senator Stone says the language of presidential candidates is like the vernacular of the fish market. This is necessary while the voters are having the scales removed from their eyes.

When a couple of fellows fight over a girl it takes a long time to determine who won.

COSY BARBER SHOP

Best service in town. Shave 10c; hair cut, 20c.; 420 W. Fifth street. Open all hours. 5816

DON'T JOURNEY, JUST TELEPHONE. SAVE YOURSELF LOTS OF TROUBLE. SIMPLY CALL US ON THE TELEPHONE. WE DELIVER QUICKLY. LYTLE'S DRUG STORE. REXALL.

1161f

Get the big league base ball scores at the Arcade pool room every night.

6016

K. K. K. Special

for cleaning white gloves and shoes.

At Lytle's Drug Store.

1912

WILL NOT EXCUSE CULTURE ALONE

Continued from page 1.

got himself. When Daniel Webster's life began the downward trend, self was in the ascendancy and he aspired for the presidency."

Dr. Taylor alluded to the recent marine disaster and asked who are the men on the ill-fated Titanic who the world today is lauding. He referred to Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Strauss, who went down together, the wife refusing to leave her husband in the hour of death, as that "magnificent man and wife."

"In losing their lives they saved their lives," was his comment. He spoke of the man who has been pilloried by the world, and who, in the minds of most men, should have gone down with the Titanic.

"Whatever else I have told you in my crude way you may forget," said Dr. Taylor, turning to the class, "remember the only way to succeed in the wide world is to build your life into the life of the great world."

Dr. Taylor told a little incident from real life to illustrate his closing point which he summed up in these words: "There will come times in your life when God will stand in the way. You can't brush him aside."

The crowd at the annual exercises filled the main auditorium of the church and a part of the Sunday school room. The platform where the graduates sat was decorated with a large United States flag, a number of college and high school pennants, and palms.

E. B. Thomas, treasurer of the school board, presented the diplomas. He made a brief introductory speech in which he said it had been estimated that at least a hundred thousand dollars had been invested in the class. He declared this investment was made because it was expected to be good. The people who invested, he said, expected returns which will be all each member of the class can give to the benefit of society.

Barber Shops Close

All Union Barber Shops will close all day on Decoration day, May 30. 6312

Jesse French

121

Piano

This

$350.00

Jesse French Piano

At Auction

Piano is now ready for your approval at A. P. Wagoner's at Poe's Jewelry Store. Mr. Wagoner will demonstrate the instrument to those who are interested.

We have come into possession of this magnificent instrument through an advertising deal, and having no need for it personally, are going to sell it at auction, Saturday, June 15, at noon. Send in your bid by mail, sealed. State your own price and terms not less than $8.00 per month and the best bid gets it.

[Mark your envelope "PIANO BID."]

The Daily Republican

Rushville, Indiana

TO LOVERS OF GOOD COFFEE

We have just installed a new electric coffee mill in our store. This machine is equipped with steel knives which cut the berry in uniform particles instead of grinding or crushing as by the old way. By this process the little oil cells remain unbroken, the oil does not evaporate and the coffee retains its fine, rich flavor. This is one reason why a pound of coffee cut on our mill make from 5 to 10 cups more; coffee than when ground the old way. We can also pulverize the coffee, making it adaptable for percolation or drip coffee pots.

L. L. ALLEN, Grocer

Phone 1420 327-329, Main St.

Summer Comforts

Porch Swings With Adjustable Reclining Backs

finished in Fumed Oak or Early English—a very comfortable swing—something different from the ordinary swing. Prices on Porch Swings, Hung Complete, $2.98 Up

A Beautiful Line of Fibre Rush Porch Furniture

Specially Priced This Week

Awnings

2-6 wide, at.....$2.50
3-0 wide, at.....$2.50
3-6 wide, at.....$2.50

No. 1 Adjustable 2-6 to 4-6.....$3.00
No. 2 Adjustable 3-0 to 5-0.....$3.50

Blue and White Stripe

These are in Stock and Ready For Immediate Delivery

Vudor

PORCH SHADES

4 ft. x 8 ft., price.....$2.25
6 ft. x 8 ft., price.....$3.25
8 ft. x 8 ft., price.....$4.25
10 ft. x 8 ft., price.....$5.50
This is the Most Durable Shade To Buy. Color Green or Brown.

Geo. C. Wyatt & Co.

Geo. C. Wyatt & Co.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

PERSONAL POINTS

—Joseph A. Dehority of Elwood spent the day here.

—Mrs. Minnie Abercrombie visited in Indianapolis today.

—George Campbell was a visitor in Indianapolis today.

—Miss Lenora Wooden was a visitor in Indianapolis today.

—Miss Freda Schatz has returned from a visit in Greensburg.

—Miss Dorothy Mulno is visiting L. P. Bloom and family in Cincinnati.

—Mrs. J. B. Smelser of Richmond is the guest of her son, Prof. L. B. Smelser and family in North Harrison street for a few days.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Johnson of Indianapolis will spend Sunday here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Blackledge and family in North Main street.

Poor appetite is a sure sign of impaired digestion. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will strengthen your digestion and improve your appetite. Thousands have been benefited by taking these Tablets. Sold by All Dealers.

More than 250,000 electric flatirons have been sold within a year in the United States and Canada.

PALACE

Complete Change
TONIGHT, 5 CTS.

New Princess

"A String of Pearls" Swell Drama
(BIOGRAPH)

"Troubles of the 'XL' Outfit"
A Crackerjack Western MELIES

Tuesday
"THE ROOT OF EVIL"
(BIOGRAPH)

5c ADMISSION 5c

THREE CONTESTS IN CONVENTION

Continued from page one.

the Democratic State, Congressional and Senatorial conventions and commended the present Democratic State official. The platform expressed a hope that the national convention would call upon Thomas R. Marshall to lead the party to victory in this campaign.

The "Registration" and "Corrupt Practices Act," both Democratic measures were heartily commended. The resolutions pledged to abide by these two laws "and that so far as lies within our power, the November election will be free from corruption of any kind or character whatsoever and we further pledge ourselves to vigorously prosecute any violation of said 'Corrupt Practices Act.'"

The two Democratic county officials, Will M. McBride and Adolphus Cameron were endorsed. The Republicans were condemned "for their neglect of duty and failure to take proper precaution to preserve to our citizens the usefulness and beauty of our public buildings and more especially our court house."

The convention had 245 votes, taking 123 necessary for choice. Mr. Holden was nominated on the first ballot, receiving 140½, as against 104½ for Dill. Both the candidates made brief talks.

Up until this morning Vorhees Cavitt of Jackson township had "clear sailing" for the nomination of sheriff. The dark horse candidate was Policeman John Wolter. Mr. Wolter announced his candidacy this morning and proceeded to arrest the convention. Cavitt had a walk away, receiving 214 votes. Policeman Wolter got only 31 votes. Cavitt is in Montana at present on a visit.

Adolphus Cameron was nominated by acclamation for surveyor. He is the present county surveyor.

Dr. Daniel Barnett of Manilla received the nomination for coroner by acclamation.

For commissioner of the northern district the names of Edson L. Aiken and John Siler were placed in nomination. Aiken was nominated on the first ballot, receiving 178 votes as to 78 for Siler. Before the vote was announced Mr. Siler withdrew his name.

W. T. Moore was nominated for commissioner of the southern district by acclamation and the convention adjourned.

A $350 Piano at Your Own Price. See Advertisement.

PORTOLA

SOME PLACE TO GO

"The Two Penitents"
(Western Drama)
(VITAGRAPH)

"The Sheriff's Daughter"
(Western Drama)
(MELIES)

"The Surprised Party Surprised" Dandy Comedy (LUBIN)

10c ADMISSION 10c

THREE TALESMEN MAY BE EXCUSED

Continued from page one.

dence first and will be followed by the defense. It is not said to be determined who will take the stand first for the State. It is understood the negro, Culbertson, will not be put on at the very first.

Paul Harris will likely be the last witness for the defense. He will take the stand to recite the incidents of the day of the tragedy and will help in the battle to prove himself innocent. Following the introduction of evidence the attorneys from each side will be allowed to make their arguments before the jury and then the jury will be instructed by the court and the case delivered to it for its verdict.

Paul Harris was in court for a short time this morning while the preliminaries were gone through with for the continuance of the case until Monday. He was attended by his father.

Henry O. Frazee, Rushville township, who was called late yesterday afternoon after David O. Alter had been challenged peremptorily by the State, said he had formed an opinion, but that it would yield to evidence. He was prejudiced against circumstantial evidence. Mr. Frazee said he believed he could give the defendant a fair trial. He was asked if he had ever talked to R. S. Davis about the case and denied that he had. John Tittsworth left the court room presumably to use the phone and when he came back Mr. Frazee was excused.

William Gordon was excused by the court on account of illness and Ellis Culbertson Noble was called. The court adjourned.

EXPIRES ENROUTE HOME

George Sharer Dies at St. Louis This Morning.

According to word received here today, George Sharer died of tuberculosis at St. Louis, Mo., this morning while on his way to this city from Roswell, N. M. He went to Roswell three years ago to regain his health. A widow and one child survive. Will Sharer of Carthage is a brother. He once conducted a bicycle repair shop here.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Two Penitents," a western Vitagraph drama; "The Sheriff's Daughter," another western thriller and "The Surprised Party Surprised," a Lubin comedy, will comprise the Portola's bill tonight.

"A String of Pearls," a Biograph feature which is said to be its best recent issue, and "Troubles of the 'XL' Outfit," a Melies western drama, will be the subjects at the Princess tonight.

"Two Americans Abroad," a romance of two worlds, which will be the opening bill of the Harris-Parkinson company next Monday night is one of the most entertaining and realistic romantic comedy dramas on the American stage. It is a beautiful heart story taken from everyday life and very carefully interspersed with bright veins of character comedy that keeps the audience in a continual roar from the start to the finish. The play abounds with exciting climaxes and comedy situations and has a beautiful love story running through it from beginning to end. This production has been placed under a mammoth waterproof tent for the summer months. There will be a number of read advanced vaudeville specialties between every act. The company also carries a feature band and orchestra of solo musicians. The show grounds will be located on the old Foundry lot on Perkins street, between Second and Third streets.

Of the coal produced in England, one ton out of three is exported.

Great Britain's wheat fields cover two million acres.

COURT BUSINESS IS FINISHED UP

Decisions Which Judge Blair Has Had Under Advisement, Returned Today.

DIVORCE REFUSED MRS. LLOYD

Motions For New Trials Filed in Two Cases—One is Sent to Shelby.

Judge Blair literally "cleaned up" the court docket today, the last day of the April term of court in preparation for the opening of the September term of court after the summer vacation. About the only case of any importance which Judge Blair has had under advisement in which he did not return a decision up until noon today was the divorce suit of Blanch Wolverton against Clayton Wolverton.

The defendant in the five thousand dollar damage suit of Lottie Herkless against P. A. Miller moved for judgment on the verdict and the judgment was sustained by the court. A jury returned a verdict for the defendant early this term.

Thomas M. Green was appointed commissioner in the partition suit of Alva M. Nelson et al against Marshall Hittle et al.

A motion for a new trial was filed by the defendant in the case of Elizabeth Gallimore against William Downard on an account for $300. A judgment for $200 for the plaintiff was returned April 25. Mrs. Gallimore sued for fees for nursing her relative the defendant's wife.

The defendant filed a motion for a new trial in the case of the Farmers Fuel Company of Gings against George Murphy which was brought to collect a hundred dollars. On May 18, Judge Blair returned judgment for the plaintiff in the sum of $90.20. The company alleged Murphy, who was a director, did not turn in all the money he had received in payment for a gas well belonging to the company.

The case of the Sharple Separator Company against Geston P. Hunt to collect $162.22 on account was sent to Shelby county on a change of venue and ten days allowed to perfect the change. The defendant asked for a change of venue several days ago.

The court returned a finding and judgment in the divorce suit of Alice Lloyd against Joel T. Lloyd, refusing the plaintiff a divorce. The case was heard May 7. Mrs. Lloyd was arrested last Saturday night by the police for operating a house of ill fame. She has since returned to her husband at Osgood and peace has been restored.

The defendant in the divorce case of Earl Elder against Maggie Elder has defaulted and the prosecutor has been ordered to appear.

Judge Blair returned judgment for Charles Smullen in the sum of $61.25. He filed a claim for that amount against himself, as administrator of the estate of John M. Legg, deceased. Ten dollars attorneys fees, to be paid by the administrator, were allowed.

MAY BUY FIRE TRUCK.

(Newcastle Times.)

It is altogether probable that New Castle will be equipped with an automobile fire truck within a year or two at most and, possibly sooner. Members of the city council realizing absolute need of additional apparatus with the completion of the new fire house, have decided to make no other purchases than those which are absolutely necessary at this time. The old fire wagon has been ordered overhauled and put in condition. It will be stationed at No. 2 house. Advertisements were ordered for bids on two thousand feet of fire hose and better quarters at central station will be provided for the men. It is suggested to purchase a $4,500 combination fire wagon but the suggestion was not favorably acted upon for the reason above stated.

All old equipment will be used with the idea of purchasing the auto truck at a later date.

SOCIETY NEWS

Mrs. J. M. Amos will entertain the Happy-go-Lucky club at her home south of the city Tuesday.

The members of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity of Knightstown gave a beautiful commencement dance for the members of the graduating class of the Knightstown high school. The affair was held in the K. of P. hall at that place. About seventy-five couples enjoyed the function. The hall was elaborately decorated for the occasion. The music was furnished by the Weisbrod Saxophone trio of Knightstown.

The annual commencement dance given by Ralph Harrold last night in the Modern Woodmen hall was attended by about sixty couples and was quite a social function. The hall was decorated in the colors of the Sennor class—blue and white and was very attractive. The Robert Douglas Saxophone Trio of Indianapolis furnished the music, which was the equal of any heard here in recent years. Several from a distance were present.

Thirty took the examination for teachers' license in the county superintendent's office today.

WANTED—Roomers and boarders at 116 W. First St., one-half square from court house. 63t6

A $350 Piano at Your Own Price. See Advertisement.

Women Who Work

The woman who earns her own living mindful of the day when she will want to relax her labors, owes it to herself to become acquainted with the wonderful workings of compound interest.

Is it possible for her to save a competency?

Yes, and a savings account with this bank persistently built upon will help accomplish it.

We Pay 3% Interest On Savings

The Rush County National Bank

Rushville, Indiana

Capital$100,000.00
Surplus$100,000.00
Resources$734,118.02

L. LINK, President.
W. E. HAVENS, Vice Pres.
L. M. SEXTON, Cashier.
V. R. SPURGEON, Ass't Cashier.

6% Dividends on Savings Building Association No. 10
Open Saturday from 6 to 8 p.m.
Office at Farmers Trust Co.

Saturday and Monday's Specials at the Bee Hive

Lace Curtains, value $1.89 a pair, 3½ yards long, extra wide and a great bargain at our special price.....$1.39

Have received another lot of Ladies Trimmed Hats, valued at $3.00 and $4.00, special.....$2.25

Boys' Short Pants, 25c and 35c values, in sizes 4 to 12, at a pair, special.....19c

Misses Gauze Vests, value 7c each, special, each.....4c

Boys' Shirts, sizes 12½ to 14, 39c value, special.....25c

Ladies Gingham Aprons, value 25c each, special, each.....21c

Bib Aprons, values 29c each, special, each.....25c

Brooms, 35c value, special.....22c

Pie Peaches, values, 15c a can, special, a can.....12½c

Dutch Cookies, value 10c a box, special.....2 for 15c

SOLE AGENTS FOR SAHLIN CORSETS

Star Brand Shoes are Better for they are made of leather only.

Bee Hive Department Store

MONEY! MONEY! MONEY!

During the trying hours it is a consolation to know, if you have good security you can get what money you need at a reasonable rate of interest

THE READLE CHATTLE MORTGAGE LOAN COMPANY
Over Farmers Trust Co.

RUSHVILLE, ONE WEEK Beginning Monday Night, May 27

Harris Parkinson Co. Tented Production

Show Grounds on Old Foundry Lot on Perkins St. Between Second and Third Sts.

Oldest, Biggest, Wealthiest, Best Equipped and Most Favorably Known Show of Its Kind in America Today

Monday Night, Greatest Play Ever Written "Two Americans Abroad"

EVERY PLAY A CITY PRODUCTION. Seats for 2000 People. All Solo Musicians, Band and Orchestra. Doors open 7:15 p. m. Show begins at 8:15 sharp. Worth going miles to see. Be there. If laughing hurts you, stay away. if not come.

Complete Change of Program Nightly. Prices 15c and 25c

Reminiscences of SHERLOCK HOLMES

by Arthur Conan Doyle Illustrations by V.L. Barnes

"This is serious, Watson," he cried. "There is some devilry going forward! Why should such a message stop in such a way? I should put Scotland Yard in touch with this business—and yet, it is too pressing for us to leave."

"Shall I go for the police?"

"We must define the situation a little more clearly. It may bear some more innocent interpretation. Come, Watson, let us go across ourselves and see what we can make of it."

As we walked rapidly down Howe street I glanced back at the building which we had left. There, dimly outlined at the top window, I could see the shadow of a head, a woman's head, gazing tensely, rigidly, out into the night, waiting with breathless suspense for the renewal of that interrupted message. At the doorway of the Howe street flats a man, muffled in a cravat and great-coat, was leaning against the railing. He started as the half-light fell upon our faces.

"Holmes!" he cried.

"Why, Gregson?" said my companion, as he shook hands with the Scotland Yard detective. "Journeys end with lovers' meetings. What brings you here?"

"The same reasons that bring you, I expect," said Gregson. "How you got on to it I can't imagine."

"Different threads, but leading up to the same tangle. I've been taking the signals."

"Signals?"

"Yes, from that window. They broke off in the middle. We came over to see the reason. But since it is safe in your hands I see no object in continuing the business."

"Wait a bit!" cried Gregson, eagerly. "I'll do you this justice, Mr. Holmes, that I was never in a case that I didn't feel stronger for having you on my side. There's only the one exit to these flats, so we have him safe."

"Who is he?"

"Well, well, we score over you for once, Mr. Holmes. You must give us best this time." He struck his stick sharply upon the ground, on which a cabman, his whip in his hand, sauntered over from a four-wheeler which stood on the far side of the street.

"May I introduce you to Mr. Sherlock Holmes?" he said to the cabman. "This is Mr. Leverton of Pinkerton's American agency."

"The hero of the Long Island Cave mystery?" said Holmes. "Sir, I am pleased to meet you."

The American, a quiet, businesslike young man, with a clean-shaven, hatched face, flushed up at the words of commendation. "I am on the trail of my life now, Mr. Holmes," said he. "If I can get Gorgiano—"

"What! Gorgiano of the Red Circle?"

"Oh, he has a European fame, has he? Well, we've learned all about him in America. We know he is at the bottom of fifty murders, and yet we have nothing positive we can take him on. I tracked him over from New York, and I've been close to him for a week in London, waiting some excuse to get my hand on his collar. Mr. Gregson and I ran him to ground in that big tenement house, and there's only the one door, so he can't slip us. There's three folk come out since he went in, but I'll swear he wasn't one of them."

"What Brings You Here?"

"Mr. Holmes talks of signals," said Gregson. "I expect, as usual, he knows a good deal that we don't."

In a few clear words Holmes explained the situation as it had appeared to us. The American struck his hands together with vexation.

"He's on to us!" he cried.

"Why do you think so?"

"Well, it figures out that way, does it not? Here he is, sending out messages to an accomplice—there are several of his gang in London. Then suddenly, just as by your own account he was telling them that there was danger, he broke short off. What could it mean except that from the window he had suddenly either caught sight of us in the street, or in some way as he was, the man must have gone down like a pole-axed ox before that terrible blow. Beside his right hand a most formidable horn-handled, two-edged dagger lay upon the floor, and near it a black kid glove.

"By George! it's 'Black' Gorgiano himself!" cried the American detective. "Some one has got ahead of us this time."

"Here is the candle in the window, Mr. Holmes," said Gregson. "Why, whatever are you doing?"

Holmes had stepped across, had lit the candle, and was passing it backwards and forwards across the window-panes. Then he peered into the darkness, blew the candle out, and threw it on the floor.

"I rather think that will be helpful," said he. He came over and stood in deep thought, while the two professionals were examining the body.

"You say that three people came out from the flat while you were waiting downstairs," said he, at last. "Did you observe them closely?"

"Yes, I did."

"Was there a fellow about thirty, black-bearded, dark, of middle size?"

"Yes; he was the last to pass me."

"That is your man, I fancy. I can give you his description, and we have a very excellent outline of his footmark. That should be enough for you."

"Not much, Mr. Holmes, among the millions of London."

"Perhaps not. That is why I thought it best to summon this lady to your aid."

We all turned round at the words. There, framed in the doorway, was a tall and beautiful woman—the mysterious lodger of Bloomsbury. Slowly she advanced, her face pale and drawn with a frightful apprehension, her eyes fixed and staring, her terrified gaze riveted upon the dark figure on the floor.

"You have killed him!" she muttered. "Oh, Dio mio, you have killed him!" Then I heard a sudden sharp intake of her breath, and she sprang into the air with a cry of joy. Round and round the room she danced, her hands clapping, her dark eyes gleaming with delighted wonder, and a thousand pretty Italian exclamations pouring from her lips. It was terrible and amazing to see such a woman so convulsed with joy at such a sight. Suddenly she stopped and gazed at us all with a questioning stare.

"But you! You are police, are you not? You have killed Giuseppe Gorgiano. Is it not so?"

"We are police, madam."

She looked round into the shadows of the room.

"But where, then, is Gennaro?" she asked. "He is my husband, Gennaro Lucca. I am Emilia Lucca, and we are both from New York. Where is Gennaro? He called me this morning from this window, and I ran with all my speed."

"It was I who called," said Holmes. "You! How could you call?"

"Your cipher was not difficult, madam. Your presence here was desirable. I knew that I had only to flash 'Vieni' and you would surely come."

The beautiful Italian looked with awe at my companion.

"I do not understand how you know these things," she said. "Giuseppe Gorgiano—how did he—?" She paused, and then suddenly her face lit up with pride and delight. "Now I see it! My Gennaro! My splendid, beautiful Gennaro, who has guarded me safe from all harm, he did it, with his own strong hand he killed the monster! Oh, Gennaro, how wonderful you are! What woman could ever be worthy of such a man?"

"Well, Mrs. Lucca," said the prosaic Gregson, laying his hand upon the lady's sleeve with as little sentiment as if she were a Notting Hill hooligan, "I am not very clear yet who you are or what you are; but you've said enough to make it clear that we shall want you at the Yard."

"One moment, Gregson," said Holmes. "I rather fancy that this lady may be as anxious to give us information as we can be to get it. You understand, madam, that your husband will be arrested and tried for

as he was, the man must have gone down like a pole-axed ox before that terrible blow. Beside his right hand a most formidable horn-handled, two-edged dagger lay upon the floor, and near it a black kid glove.

"By George! it's 'Black' Gorgiano himself!" cried the American detective. "Some one has got ahead of us this time."

"Here is the candle in the window, Mr. Holmes," said Gregson. "Why, whatever are you doing?"

Holmes had stepped across, had lit the candle, and was passing it backwards and forwards across the window-panes. Then he peered into the darkness, blew the candle out, and threw it on the floor.

"I rather think that will be helpful," said he. He came over and stood in deep thought, while the two professionals were examining the body.

"You say that three people came out from the flat while you were waiting downstairs," said he, at last. "Did you observe them closely?"

"Yes, I did."

"Was there a fellow about thirty, black-bearded, dark, of middle size?"

"Yes; he was the last to pass me."

"That is your man, I fancy. I can give you his description, and we have a very excellent outline of his footmark. That should be enough for you."

"Not much, Mr. Holmes, among the millions of London."

"Perhaps not. That is why I thought it best to summon this lady to your aid."

We all turned round at the words. There, framed in the doorway, was a tall and beautiful woman—the mysterious lodger of Bloomsbury. Slowly she advanced, her face pale and drawn with a frightful apprehension, her eyes fixed and staring, her terrified gaze riveted upon the dark figure on the floor.

"You have killed him!" she muttered. "Oh, Dio mio, you have killed him!" Then I heard a sudden sharp intake of her breath, and she sprang into the air with a cry of joy. Round and round the room she danced, her hands clapping, her dark eyes gleaming with delighted wonder, and a thousand pretty Italian exclamations pouring from her lips. It was terrible and amazing to see such a woman so convulsed with joy at such a sight. Suddenly she stopped and gazed at us all with a questioning stare.

"But you! You are police, are you not? You have killed Giuseppe Gorgiano. Is it not so?"

"We are police, madam."

She looked round into the shadows of the room.

"But where, then, is Gennaro?" she asked. "He is my husband, Gennaro Lucca. I am Emilia Lucca, and we are both from New York. Where is Gennaro? He called me this morning from this window, and I ran with all my speed."

"It was I who called," said Holmes. "You! How could you call?"

"Your cipher was not difficult, madam. Your presence here was desirable. I knew that I had only to flash 'Vieni' and you would surely come."

The beautiful Italian looked with awe at my companion.

"I do not understand how you know these things," she said. "Giuseppe Gorgiano—how did he—?" She paused, and then suddenly her face lit up with pride and delight. "Now I see it! My Gennaro! My splendid, beautiful Gennaro, who has guarded me safe from all harm, he did it, with his own strong hand he killed the monster! Oh, Gennaro, how wonderful you are! What woman could ever be worthy of such a man?"

"Well, Mrs. Lucca," said the prosaic Gregson, laying his hand upon the lady's sleeve with as little sentiment as if she were a Notting Hill hooligan, "I am not very clear yet who you are or what you are; but you've said enough to make it clear that we shall want you at the Yard."

"One moment, Gregson," said Holmes. "I rather fancy that this lady may be as anxious to give us information as we can be to get it. You understand, madam, that your husband will be arrested and tried for

as he was, the man must have gone down like a pole-axed ox before that terrible blow. Beside his right hand a most formidable horn-handled, two-edged dagger lay upon the floor, and near it a black kid glove.

"By George! it's 'Black' Gorgiano himself!" cried the American detective. "Some one has got ahead of us this time."

"Here is the candle in the window, Mr. Holmes," said Gregson. "Why, whatever are you doing?"

Holmes had stepped across, had lit the candle, and was passing it backwards and forwards across the window-panes. Then he peered into the darkness, blew the candle out, and threw it on the floor.

"I rather think that will be helpful," said he. He came over and stood in deep thought, while the two professionals were examining the body.

"You say that three people came out from the flat while you were waiting downstairs," said he, at last. "Did you observe them closely?"

"Yes, I did."

"Was there a fellow about thirty, black-bearded, dark, of middle size?"

"Yes; he was the last to pass me."

"That is your man, I fancy. I can give you his description, and we have a very excellent outline of his footmark. That should be enough for you."

"Not much, Mr. Holmes, among the millions of London."

"Perhaps not. That is why I thought it best to summon this lady to your aid."

We all turned round at the words. There, framed in the doorway, was a tall and beautiful woman—the mysterious lodger of Bloomsbury. Slowly she advanced, her face pale and drawn with a frightful apprehension, her eyes fixed and staring, her terrified gaze riveted upon the dark figure on the floor.

"You have killed him!" she muttered. "Oh, Dio mio, you have killed him!" Then I heard a sudden sharp intake of her breath, and she sprang into the air with a cry of joy. Round and round the room she danced, her hands clapping, her dark eyes gleaming with delighted wonder, and a thousand pretty Italian exclamations pouring from her lips. It was terrible and amazing to see such a woman so convulsed with joy at such a sight. Suddenly she stopped and gazed at us all with a questioning stare.

"But you! You are police, are you not? You have killed Giuseppe Gorgiano. Is it not so?"

"We are police, madam."

She looked round into the shadows of the room.

"But where, then, is Gennaro?" she asked. "He is my husband, Gennaro Lucca. I am Emilia Lucca, and we are both from New York. Where is Gennaro? He called me this morning from this window, and I ran with all my speed."

"It was I who called," said Holmes. "You! How could you call?"

"Your cipher was not difficult, madam. Your presence here was desirable. I knew that I had only to flash 'Vieni' and you would surely come."

The beautiful Italian looked with awe at my companion.

"I do not understand how you know these things," she said. "Giuseppe Gorgiano—how did he—?" She paused, and then suddenly her face lit up with pride and delight. "Now I see it! My Gennaro! My splendid, beautiful Gennaro, who has guarded me safe from all harm, he did it, with his own strong hand he killed the monster! Oh, Gennaro, how wonderful you are! What woman could ever be worthy of such a man?"

"Well, Mrs. Lucca," said the prosaic Gregson, laying his hand upon the lady's sleeve with as little sentiment as if she were a Notting Hill hooligan, "I am not very clear yet who you are or what you are; but you've said enough to make it clear that we shall want you at the Yard."

"One moment, Gregson," said Holmes. "I rather fancy that this lady may be as anxious to give us information as we can be to get it. You understand, madam, that your husband will be arrested and tried for

as he was, the man must have gone down like a pole-axed ox before that terrible blow. Beside his right hand a most formidable horn-handled, two-edged dagger lay upon the floor, and near it a black kid glove.

"By George! it's 'Black' Gorgiano himself!" cried the American detective. "Some one has got ahead of us this time."

"Here is the candle in the window, Mr. Holmes," said Gregson. "Why, whatever are you doing?"

Holmes had stepped across, had lit the candle, and was passing it backwards and forwards across the window-panes. Then he peered into the darkness, blew the candle out, and threw it on the floor.

"I rather think that will be helpful," said he. He came over and stood in deep thought, while the two professionals were examining the body.

"You say that three people came out from the flat while you were waiting downstairs," said he, at last. "Did you observe them closely?"

"Yes, I did."

"Was there a fellow about thirty, black-bearded, dark, of middle size?"

"Yes; he was the last to pass me."

"That is your man, I fancy. I can give you his description, and we have a very excellent outline of his footmark. That should be enough for you."

"Not much, Mr. Holmes, among the millions of London."

"Perhaps not. That is why I thought it best to summon this lady to your aid."

We all turned round at the words. There, framed in the doorway, was a tall and beautiful woman—the mysterious lodger of Bloomsbury. Slowly she advanced, her face pale and drawn with a frightful apprehension, her eyes fixed and staring, her terrified gaze riveted upon the dark figure on the floor.

"You have killed him!" she muttered. "Oh, Dio mio, you have killed him!" Then I heard a sudden sharp intake of her breath, and she sprang into the air with a cry of joy. Round and round the room she danced, her hands clapping, her dark eyes gleaming with delighted wonder, and a thousand pretty Italian exclamations pouring from her lips. It was terrible and amazing to see such a woman so convulsed with joy at such a sight. Suddenly she stopped and gazed at us all with a questioning stare.

"But you! You are police, are you not? You have killed Giuseppe Gorgiano. Is it not so?"

"We are police, madam."

She looked round into the shadows of the room.

"But where, then, is Gennaro?" she asked. "He is my husband, Gennaro Lucca. I am Emilia Lucca, and we are both from New York. Where is Gennaro? He called me this morning from this window, and I ran with all my speed."

"It was I who called," said Holmes. "You! How could you call?"

"Your cipher was not difficult, madam. Your presence here was desirable. I knew that I had only to flash 'Vieni' and you would surely come."

The beautiful Italian looked with awe at my companion.

"I do not understand how you know these things," she said. "Giuseppe Gorgiano—how did he—?" She paused, and then suddenly her face lit up with pride and delight. "Now I see it! My Gennaro! My splendid, beautiful Gennaro, who has guarded me safe from all harm, he did it, with his own strong hand he killed the monster! Oh, Gennaro, how wonderful you are! What woman could ever be worthy of such a man?"

"Well, Mrs. Lucca," said the prosaic Gregson, laying his hand upon the lady's sleeve with as little sentiment as if she were a Notting Hill hooligan, "I am not very clear yet who you are or what you are; but you've said enough to make it clear that we shall want you at the Yard."

"One moment, Gregson," said Holmes. "I rather fancy that this lady may be as anxious to give us information as we can be to get it. You understand, madam, that your husband will be arrested and tried for

as he was, the man must have gone down like a pole-axed ox before that terrible blow. Beside his right hand a most formidable horn-handled, two-edged dagger lay upon the floor, and near it a black kid glove.

"By George! it's 'Black' Gorgiano himself!" cried the American detective. "Some one has got ahead of us this time."

"Here is the candle in the window, Mr. Holmes," said Gregson. "Why, whatever are you doing?"

Holmes had stepped across, had lit the candle, and was passing it backwards and forwards across the window-panes. Then he peered into the darkness, blew the candle out, and threw it on the floor.

"I rather think that will be helpful," said he. He came over and stood in deep thought, while the two professionals were examining the body.

"You say that three people came out from the flat while you were waiting downstairs," said he, at last. "Did you observe them closely?"

"Yes, I did."

"Was there a fellow about thirty, black-bearded, dark, of middle size?"

"Yes; he was the last to pass me."

"That is your man, I fancy. I can give you his description, and we have a very excellent outline of his footmark. That should be enough for you."

"Not much, Mr. Holmes, among the millions of London."

"Perhaps not. That is why I thought it best to summon this lady to your aid."

We all turned round at the words. There, framed in the doorway, was a tall and beautiful woman—the mysterious lodger of Bloomsbury. Slowly she advanced, her face pale and drawn with a frightful apprehension, her eyes fixed and staring, her terrified gaze riveted upon the dark figure on the floor.

"You have killed him!" she muttered. "Oh, Dio mio, you have killed him!" Then I heard a sudden sharp intake of her breath, and she sprang into the air with a cry of joy. Round and round the room she danced, her hands clapping, her dark eyes gleaming with delighted wonder, and a thousand pretty Italian exclamations pouring from her lips. It was terrible and amazing to see such a woman so convulsed with joy at such a sight. Suddenly she stopped and gazed at us all with a questioning stare.

"But you! You are police, are you not? You have killed Giuseppe Gorgiano. Is it not so?"

"We are police, madam."

She looked round into the shadows of the room.

"But where, then, is Gennaro?" she asked. "He is my husband, Gennaro Lucca. I am Emilia Lucca, and we are both from New York. Where is Gennaro? He called me this morning from this window, and I ran with all my speed."

"It was I who called," said Holmes. "You! How could you call?"

"Your cipher was not difficult, madam. Your presence here was desirable. I knew that I had only to flash 'Vieni' and you would surely come."

The beautiful Italian looked with awe at my companion.

"I do not understand how you know these things," she said. "Giuseppe Gorgiano—how did he—?" She paused, and then suddenly her face lit up with pride and delight. "Now I see it! My Gennaro! My splendid, beautiful Gennaro, who has guarded me safe from all harm, he did it, with his own strong hand he killed the monster! Oh, Gennaro, how wonderful you are! What woman could ever be worthy of such a man?"

"Well, Mrs. Lucca," said the prosaic Gregson, laying his hand upon the lady's sleeve with as little sentiment as if she were a Notting Hill hooligan, "I am not very clear yet who you are or what you are; but you've said enough to make it clear that we shall want you at the Yard."

"One moment, Gregson," said Holmes. "I rather fancy that this lady may be as anxious to give us information as we can be to get it. You understand, madam, that your husband will be arrested and tried for

as he was, the man must have gone down like a pole-axed ox before that terrible blow. Beside his right hand a most formidable horn-handled, two-edged dagger lay upon the floor, and near it a black kid glove.

"By George! it's 'Black' Gorgiano himself!" cried the American detective. "Some one has got ahead of us this time."

"Here is the candle in the window, Mr. Holmes," said Gregson. "Why, whatever are you doing?"

Holmes had stepped across, had lit the candle, and was passing it backwards and forwards across the window-panes. Then he peered into the darkness, blew the candle out, and threw it on the floor.

"I rather think that will be helpful," said he. He came over and stood in deep thought, while the two professionals were examining the body.

"You say that three people came out from the flat while you were waiting downstairs," said he, at last. "Did you observe them closely?"

"Yes, I did."

"Was there a fellow about thirty, black-bearded, dark, of middle size?"

"Yes; he was the last to pass me."

"That is your man, I fancy. I can give you his description, and we have a very excellent outline of his footmark. That should be enough for you."

"Not much, Mr. Holmes, among the millions of London."

"Perhaps not. That is why I thought it best to summon this lady to your aid."

We all turned round at the words. There, framed in the doorway, was a tall and beautiful woman—the mysterious lodger of Bloomsbury. Slowly she advanced, her face pale and drawn with a frightful apprehension, her eyes fixed and staring, her terrified gaze riveted upon the dark figure on the floor.

"You have killed him!" she muttered. "Oh, Dio mio, you have killed him!" Then I heard a sudden sharp intake of her breath, and she sprang into the air with a cry of joy. Round and round the room she danced, her hands clapping, her dark eyes gleaming with delighted wonder, and a thousand pretty Italian exclamations pouring from her lips. It was terrible and amazing to see such a woman so convulsed with joy at such a sight. Suddenly she stopped and gazed at us all with a questioning stare.

"But you! You are police, are you not? You have killed Giuseppe Gorgiano. Is it not so?"

"We are police, madam."

She looked round into the shadows of the room.

"But where, then, is Gennaro?" she asked. "He is my husband, Gennaro Lucca. I am Emilia Lucca, and we are both from New York. Where is Gennaro? He called me this morning from this window, and I ran with all my speed."

"It was I who called," said Holmes. "You! How could you call?"

"Your cipher was not difficult, madam. Your presence here was desirable. I knew that I had only to flash 'Vieni' and you would surely come."

The beautiful Italian looked with awe at my companion.

"I do not understand how you know these things," she said. "Giuseppe Gorgiano—how did he—?" She paused, and then suddenly her face lit up with pride and delight. "Now I see it! My Gennaro! My splendid, beautiful Gennaro, who has guarded me safe from all harm, he did it, with his own strong hand he killed the monster! Oh, Gennaro, how wonderful you are! What woman could ever be worthy of such a man?"

"Well, Mrs. Lucca," said the prosaic Gregson, laying his hand upon the lady's sleeve with as little sentiment as if she were a Notting Hill hooligan, "I am not very clear yet who you are or what you are; but you've said enough to make it clear that we shall want you at the Yard."

"One moment, Gregson," said Holmes. "I rather fancy that this lady may be as anxious to give us information as we can be to get it. You understand, madam, that your husband will be arrested and tried for

as he was, the man must have gone down like a pole-axed ox before that terrible blow. Beside his right hand a most formidable horn-handled, two-edged dagger lay upon the floor, and near it a black kid glove.

"By George! it's 'Black' Gorgiano himself!" cried the American detective. "Some one has got ahead of us this time."

"Here is the candle in the window, Mr. Holmes," said Gregson. "Why, whatever are you doing?"

Holmes had stepped across, had lit the candle, and was passing it backwards and forwards across the window-panes. Then he peered into the darkness, blew the candle out, and threw it on the floor.

"I rather think that will be helpful," said he. He came over and stood in deep thought, while the two professionals were examining the body.

"You say that three people came out from the flat while you were waiting downstairs," said he, at last. "Did you observe them closely?"

"Yes, I did."

"Was there a fellow about thirty, black-bearded, dark, of middle size?"

"Yes; he was the last to pass me."

"That is your man, I fancy. I can give you his description, and we have a very excellent outline of his footmark. That should be enough for you."

"Not much, Mr. Holmes, among the millions of London."

"Perhaps not. That is why I thought it best to summon this lady to your aid."

We all turned round at the words. There, framed in the doorway, was a tall and beautiful woman—the mysterious lodger of Bloomsbury. Slowly she advanced, her face pale and drawn with a frightful apprehension, her eyes fixed and staring, her terrified gaze riveted upon the dark figure on the floor.

"You have killed him!" she muttered. "Oh, Dio mio, you have killed him!" Then I heard a sudden sharp intake of her breath, and she sprang into the air with a cry of joy. Round and round the room she danced, her hands clapping, her dark eyes gleaming with delighted wonder, and a thousand pretty Italian exclamations pouring from her lips. It was terrible and amazing to see such a woman so convulsed with joy at such a sight. Suddenly she stopped and gazed at us all with a questioning stare.

"But you! You are police, are you not? You have killed Giuseppe Gorgiano. Is it not so?"

"We are police, madam."

She looked round into the shadows of the room.

"But where, then, is Gennaro?" she asked. "He is my husband, Gennaro Lucca. I am Emilia Lucca, and we are both from New York. Where is Gennaro? He called me this morning from this window, and I ran with all my speed."

"It was I who called," said Holmes. "You! How could you call?"

"Your cipher was not difficult, madam. Your presence here was desirable. I knew that I had only to flash 'Vieni' and you would surely come."

The beautiful Italian looked with awe at my companion.

"I do not understand how you know these things," she said. "Giuseppe Gorgiano—how did he—?" She paused, and then suddenly her face lit up with pride and delight. "Now I see it! My Gennaro! My splendid, beautiful Gennaro, who has guarded me safe from all harm, he did it, with his own strong hand he killed the monster! Oh, Gennaro, how wonderful you are! What woman could ever be worthy of such a man?"

ESTABLISHED 1859.
J. B. SCHRICHTER SONS
 MONUMENTS, MAUSOLEUMS, EXAMINE OUR LARGE DISPLAY.
 WE ARE PREPARED TO SAVE YOU MONEY.
MONTELLO MILLSTONE
 And All Popular Granites in our Large Stock. We Can Please You Come and see us and be convinced.
 117-121 South Main Street, RUSHVILLE, INDIANA.

Daily Markets

| | |
|---|--|
| Indianapolis Grain and Livestock. | |
| Wheat—Wagon, $1.15; No. 2 red, $1.15½. Corn—No. 3, 81c. Oats—No. 2 white, 56½c. Hay—Baled, $23.00@25.00; timothy, $29.00@32.00; mixed, $23.00@30.00. Cattle—$3.00@8.65. Hogs—$5.00@8.00. Sheep—$3.00@5.25. Lambs—$5.00@8.25. Receipts—3,500 hogs; 1,000 cattle; 350 sheep. | |
| At Cincinnati. | |
| Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.23. Corn—No. 2, 81c. Oats—No. 2, 55½c. Cattle—$4.00@8.40. Hogs—$5.00@8.00. Sheep—$2.75@4.75. Lambs—$4.50@9.50. | |
| At Chicago. | |
| Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.16. Corn—No. 3, 82½c. Oats—No. 2, 56c. Cattle—Steers, $4.00@9.40; stockers and feeders, $4.30@6.55. Hogs—$5.50@7.85. Sheep—$4.60@7.40. Lambs—$5.90@9.00. | |
| At St. Louis. | |
| Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.20½. Corn—No. 2, 84c. Oats—No. 2, 54c. Cattle—Steers, $5.00@7.85. Hogs—$5.25@7.90. Sheep—$4.75@6.25. Lambs—$6.25@9.00. | |
| Theo. H. Reed & Son are paying the following prices for grain today, May 25, 1912: | |
| Wheat $1.15 | |
| Corn 75c | |
| Oats 50c to 55c | |
| Clover Seed $10.00 to $11.00 | |
| Timothy Seed $5.00 to $6.00 | |
| The following are the ruling prices of the Rushville market, corrected date—May 25, 1912: | |
| POULTRY. | |
| Geese 4c | |
| Turkeys 10c | |
| Spring Chickens 20c | |
| Hens on foot per pound 9c | |
| Ducks 7c | |
| PRODUCE | |
| Eggs 16c | |
| Butter 19c | |

Want Ad Department

Advertisements under this head are charged for at the rate of one-third cent per word for each insertion. The same ad will be placed in the Indianapolis Star and Daily Republican at the combined rate of one cent per word. Found articles of small value will be advertised free of charge.

FOR SALE—a fine farm containing 211 acres; will be sold cheap if taken soon; has living spring and good stream of water; 500 rods new wire fence; two houses and two barns, one mile apart, which make it easy to divide in two places, known as Thomas H. Pond farm, one mile north of Andersonville. Call on or address Ida Pond, New Salem. Or John D. Megee, Rushville, Ind. 431f

FOR SALE—Ready made hog houses standard size. Cheaper than you can build them. Pinnell & Tompkins. Phone 1031. 218f

FOR RENT—7 room house in Tony Row also 8 room house next to Norris garage. Mrs. Sarah Giffin. 6016.

FOR RENT—1 furnished room and meals. 927 North Perkins. 221f

FOR RENT—6 rooms and bath. See Mrs. Elizabeth Megee, 903 North Main. 361f

FOR SALE—Oliver Typewriter. No. 3 Model. This is a bargain. Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction Company, Rushville, Indiana. 521f

FOR RENT—Four small rooms for light housekeeping; also sleeping rooms. Corner Morgan and Fourth. Phone 1071. 55f

FOR RENT—north side double house, second house south of traction on Perkins St. Mrs. O. P. Dillon. 5816

WANTED—White Pekin duck eggs. F. Windler, Rushville, Ind. 5816

LOST—Pair of nose glasses. Finder please return to John P. Frazee. 5816

WANTED—Magazines, old clothing, newspapers, rummage of all kinds. Call 3194 Salvation Army. 5813

FOUND—amethyst rosary. Owner may have same by calling at this office. 6113

PIANO AUCTION—$350 Piano to be sold at your own price. Make us an offer by mail. See advertisement. The Daily Republican. 62115

FOR SALE—Heavy work team, will sell single. 406 N. Arthur street. Thomas Trader. 54112

LAWN MOWERS—Ground, sharpened, repaired. Called for and delivered. The Madden Bros. Co. Phone 1632. 36152

FURNISHED ROOMS—for rent signs, 15 cents each at The Republican office. 2901f

FOR SALE—Stock hogs in ear load lots, weighing from 75 to 115 pounds. Address E. E. Post, Liberty, Indiana. Reference, Union Co. or Citizens Bank. 35130

A $350 Piano at Your Own Price. See Advertisement.

HOGS FOR SALE—five extra good, large, growthy Duroc Boars, nine months old. Sired by Long Chief, full brother to Cherry King, sire of State Fair and International winners. J. S. Lovejoy, Falmouth. 42130

WANTED—Two dining room girls at once. Apply at Windsor Hotel. 541f

WANTED IMMEDIATELY—ladies or gentlemen for easy home work. Salary $2.50 per day. Call at 315 N. Perkins St. before Saturday noon. 6211

FOR SALE—Fresh Jersey Cows; also good work horses. See Frank Warrick, ½ mile southwest Weeks' abattoir. 5716

WANTED—a pastry cook. Call at office Windsor Hotel. 591f

FOR SALE—English go-cart. Phone 1320. 6016

FOR RENT—a cottage on Perkins street between 7th and 8th. Inquire 718 North Perkins. 6016

MOTORCYCLE—for sale, R-S with magneto cut-out, Scream whistle, watch and holder, speedometer, "Old Sol" lamp (1500 candle power) Prest-O-Lite tank, tandem, luggage carrier and extra tire. First check for $150 takes the full outfit. Machine is well known and is one above the average and is always ready to go. See the machine at 105 East Third. Will O. Feudner, Rushville, Ind. 341f

WANTED—Second hand coal oil stove with oven. Address 315 N. Morgan. 6216

FOR SALE—a 9-room modern residence at 228 E. Second St. For information address Jacob Kuntz, 904 Keystone Ave, Indianapolis, Ind. 63126

MRS. WILLIAM C. THAW.
 Who is Still Working For Her Son's Release From Prison.

© 1912, by American Press Association.

White Plains, N. Y., May 25.—"Trial by jury is denied," is the only memorandum filed by Justice Keogh in the Thaw case. The decision was given in an action that was begun by Mrs. Mary C. Thaw for the release of her son from Matteawan insane asylum on the ground that he is cured. The question of Thaw's sanity will be tried before Justice Keogh here on June 3.

CHEAPER MONEY FOR AMERICAN FARMERS

President Taft Would Adopt the European Plan.

Washington, May 25.—The object of an investigation recently undertaken by the state department through five of its ambassadors in Europe is cheaper money for the borrowing American farmer.

In America the farmer today pays a higher rate of interest for his money, proportionate to the security which he offers in his farm land mortgage, than almost any other class of investors in the country. In Europe the farmer borrows on equal terms with the biggest railroad, industrial corporation or municipality.

President Taft wants to introduce the European system in this country, so that the American farmer can raise money on his farm through a bond salable in any part of the country. Cheap money, thinks Mr. Taft, will put it in the power of the small farmer or the tenant who wants to start out for himself, to get his farm on a paying basis without shouldering a staggering burden at the outset.

President Taft is optimistic that in this plan he can give the investor a safe place for his money and at the same time apply that money in the development of what he considers one of the most important industries to which the United States owes protection today.

An Unprecedented Suit.
 New York, May 25.—The hearing in the government suit against the so-called coffee trust marks the beginning of a case which, if the position of the complainants is sustained, is without precedent. The hearing is to enable the defendants to show cause why an injunction should not be issued restraining them from disposing of 950,000 bags of coffee, stored in a local warehouse, pending further court action in the government fight against the money trust.

THE NATIONAL GAME

Contests in the Three Big Leagues Noted Here at a Glance.

| National League. | |
|--|---------------------------|
| At Pittsburgh— | R.H.E. |
| Chicago..... | 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 1—3 6 0 |
| Pittsburgh..... | 0 0 0 1 1 4 0 1—7 14 1 |
| Richie, Cale and Archer; Hendrix and Kelly. | |
| At St. Louis— | R.H.E. |
| Cincinnati..... | 0 2 1 0 0 1 0 2 4—10 14 1 |
| St. Louis..... | 0 0 1 2 3 0 0 0—6 10 3 |
| Suggs, Benton and McLean; Geyer and Wingo. | |
| At Brooklyn— | R.H.E. |
| New York..... | 0 3 0 0 2 1 0 0 0—6 7 1 |
| Brooklyn..... | 0 0 0 1 0 2 0 0 0—3 3 2 |
| Marquard and Meyers; Ragoan, Knetzer and Phelps. | |
| At Philadelphia— | R.H.E. |
| Boston..... | 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0—3 11 0 |
| Philadelphia..... | 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3—5 12 2 |
| Hess and Kling; Moore, Seaton and Doolin. | |

| American League. | |
|--|--------------------------|
| At Boston— | R.H.E. |
| Philadelphia..... | 0 0 1 0 2 0 0 0 0—3 6 1 |
| Boston..... | 2 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0—4 8 0 |
| Russell, Houck and Thomas; Bedient and Carrigan. | |
| At New York— | R.H.E. |
| Washington..... | 1 0 1 0 1 0 0 1 2—6 14 2 |
| New York..... | 3 0 0 0 0 1 5 2—11 14 1 |
| Walker and Almsmith; Quinn and Sweeney. | |
| American Association. | |
| At Minneapolis, 3; Kansas City, 8. | |
| At Louisville, 1; Columbus, 9. | |
| At Indianapolis, 8; Toledo, 0. | |
| At St. Paul, 5; Milwaukee, 2. | |

GYPSY TACKLES WRONG PERSON

Fortune Teller Gets Her Hand In 'Squire's Pocket.

THEFT QUICKLY DISCOVERED

When Isaac J. Hart, Lawrenceburg's Seventy-Three-Old Justice of the Peace, Found That Gypsy Had Imposed Upon Him He Put His Sixty-Six-Year-Old Constable on the Trail and Money Was Quickly Restored.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., May 25.—While Isaac J. Hart, aged seventy-three, a justice of the peace, listened to the story of an old gypsy fortune teller, who claimed to be a crown princess of the Stankovitch house of Romania, he alleges that his red leather pocketbook was taken from his pocket, at least he missed it and $13.75 in real money shortly after the fortune teller left his office. He summoned his constable, George W. Myers, aged sixty-six, and they started in pursuit for the gypsy camp. After an argument the magistrate's money was returned to him and the gypsy band ordered to move on.

DIRECT CHARGES

State Now Prepared to Act in the Sweeney Case.

Indianapolis, May 25.—Governor Marshall has transmitted to the attorney general reports from the state board of accounts in the cases of ten former public officials. The total amount charged in the reports is $20,200.35, of which $15,491.60 is direct. The remainder, or $4,708.75, is constructive.

Among the reports was that covering the term of Z. T. Sweeney, former state commissioner of fish and game, who is charged directly with $7,252.88. The total charge of $7,252.88 against Sweeney is distributed as follows: Shortage in accounting for hunters' licenses in the Marion county agency, $6,196; excess salary paid a clerical assistant at the central office at Columbus, $343.33; illegal expenditures by Chief Deputy Edwin E. Earle, $713.55.

DE PAUW'S NEED

Methodist College Now Looking For a New President.

Greencastle, Ind., May 25.—The election of Francis J. McConnell as a bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church automatically removes him as president of DePauw university, and Vice President Gobin is now the acting president. Dr. McConnell will be the nominal head of the institution until his affairs are arranged. The matter of selecting a new president will be taken up at the next regular meeting of the board of trustees, June 12, when a committee will be appointed for the purpose. The school officials have no one in mind as a possible successor to Mr. McConnell, but they will lose no time in making a search for an available man of the necessary qualifications.

Mrs. J. M. Henshaw, 235 South 14th St., Richmond, had a severe pain in her back and other indications of kidney trouble. She heard of the curative qualities of Foley Kidney Pills and took them. She says: "I was entirely relieved from the backache, my kidney action improved, and I am now all over my trouble. I gladly recommend Foley Kidney Pills." F. B. Johnson & Co.

Gas Fixtures

Hargrove & Mullin
 Druggists

Kyanize
YOUR HOME
 Whatever work you want done around the House there is a

KYANIZE FINISH FOR IT

For Floors, Linoleums and Oil Cloths, Use Kyanize Floor Finish
 For standing finish and all inside work, Use Kyanize Interior Finish
 For outside doors, exposed work, Motor Boat or Canoe, Use Kyanize Spar Finish
 For furniture and iron beds, Use Kyanize White Enamel

Each the absolute best for the purpose intended.
 Your money back if Kyanize doesn't do all we claim.

EDWARD CROSSBY, Rushville, Ind.

Two Boys and a Gun.
 Greenwood, Ind., May 25.—Lowell Funkhouser, aged seven, was shot accidentally by his playmate, Walter Wilson, aged thirteen. A shotgun in the hands of the Wilson boy was discharged. The boy said he did not know it was loaded. The shot struck the Funkhouser boy in the groin, and the doctors say there is no hope for his recovery.

He Refused to Tell.
 Laporte, Ind., May 25.—John Schrafer of Newville, Pa., is dead here as the result of wounds he received in a mysterious assault. He refused to tell anything himself or the assault.

Crushed to Death by Tree.
 Bloomington, Ind., May 25.—Carl Skirvin, aged eighteen, was killed by a tree falling on him.

A Million For Schools.
 New York, May 25.—The general education board, to which J. D. Rockefeller gave thirty millions in 1907 and which has for its purpose the promotion of higher education throughout the United States, with particular reference to the south, gave away nearly a million dollars to schools and colleges at the spring meeting held yesterday.

Charge Changed to Murder.
 Jeffersonville, Ind., May 25.—Henry Barron, who was released on bond after shooting August H. Snider at the government depot, was rearrested following Snider's death, which resulted Smoke FAIR PROMISE 5c Cigars.

AUTO LIVERY

We have two good machines in service now and CAN GIVE YOU QUICK SERVICE

Our auto and tire repair departments are in charge of competent men, all work guaranteed. We wash cars, in fact anything in the auto repair line.

Ball & Smelser
 Phone 3280 North of Court House Rushville

Mill Wood and Custom Sawing

We have our mill running steadily again. Anyone wanting logs sawed or wanting wood will be taken care of promptly.

Reynolds & Clifford
 Phone 1122 W. Ninth St.

OLIVER CULTIVATORS

Absolute and distinct advantages over other implements are what count, and the following are to be found in the Ohio Cultivator.

The work is done perfectly, because of the parallel gangs, always held a uniform distance apart, always maintaining full depth and never shirking when going through hard ground.

This good work is done with the greatest ease by the operator, because of the power lift for the gangs, provided by draft of team, and the pivotal sea bar guide which shifts the gangs, besides pivoting the pole to guide the machine. The Oliver is absolutely the easiest to guide of any cultivator invented.

It is easy on the team, because of perfect draft lines—therefore no neck weight or neck draft. Light to draw, because of short frame, and otherwise novel construction.

Automatic Balance Frame. The movement of one lever assisted by the team raises and lowers both gangs, and at the same time balances the frame.

For narrow rows, the wheels can be set 32 inches between the tires and still give ample room for guiding where planting is done badly out of check.

As a hard ground cultivator it has no equal. There are no springs or high hitch to draw the shovels out of the ground, which are, therefore, always hungry for their work.

It is a profitable cultivator for the farmer, as it does not wear out easily, never breaks, saves time and manual labor, and does faster and better work than is possible with any other.

For Sale By JOHN B. MORRIS AT HAVENS & RIGGS OLD STAND

On the Bargain Counter

FOR A SHORT TIME

A Good 70 Acre Farm Near Rushville

Good buildings, natural gas, on good main traveled pike.

Pick It Up Before It Is Too Late

ELDER & CHERRY

WON'T YOU COME AND SEE THE UNUSUALLY ATTRACTIVE DISPLAY of WASH GOODS

While Assortments are at their Best?

If you come now you'll see the largest display of these goods ever shown in Rushville, and we are sure that patterns are so handsome and prices so reasonable that buying will prove irresistible when you see them.

An exceptional large and attractive line of fancy figures and stripes in Lawns at 10 and 15 cents per yard.

Large assortments of beautiful patterns and fair prices combine to make an inspection of our famous lines of WASH GOODS a genuine pleasure.

Phone 1143 Pictorial Review Patterns 223 N. Main St.
Kennedy & Casady

"The Store That Satisfies"

This Store will be closed all day Decoration Day.

ECONOMY and EFFICIENCY

The Peoples Loan and Trust Company acts as Executor, Administrator, Assignee, Trustee, Guardian or Agent.

With its organization and its collective character, ability and experience, the Peoples Loan and Trust Company acts in the above capacities with Economy and Efficiency.

THE PEOPLES LOAN & TRUST CO.
RUSHVILLE, INDIANA
"The Home For Savings"

Big Stock of Groceries AT LESS THAN COST

DAMAGED BY SMOKE
CASH SALE UNTIL SOLD

| | |
|---|------------------|
| 10c Corn | 5c |
| 12c Corn | 7c |
| 15c Corn | 10c |
| 15c Peas | 10c |
| 15c Tomatoes, 3 lb. can, 3 cans for | 25c |
| 25c cans of Desert Peaches | 15c |
| 15c Pealed Pie Peaches | 10c |
| 50c gallon Syrup | 35c |
| 15c Can Syrup, 3 lb. | 10c |
| Kenton Baking Powder, per lb. | 15c |
| 10c Can Kidney Beans, 4 for | 25c |
| 15c Can Sweet Potatoes | 10c |
| 60c Gunpowder Tea | 35c |
| 80c Gunpowder Tea | 45c |
| $1.00 Gunpowder Tea | 55c |
| 35c gallon Apples | 20c |
| Pure Orleans Molasses, per gallon | 80c |
| Pearline, 2 packages for | 5c |
| Iron Washbuds | 25c, 35c and 40c |
| Oil Cans | 20c, 25c and 30c |
| Sour Pickles, a dozen | 5c |
| Lenox Soap, 8 bars to a customer, 8 bars for | 25c |
| Jellies, Corn Flake, Oats, Puffed Wheat, Lanterns, Lamp Flues, Gas Flues at one-half former prices. | |

M. V. SPIVEY

130 W. Second St. Phone 1501 Rushville, Ind.

TO BE PROUDEST BOY IN COUNTY

Edgar Sunmann of Raleigh Will be Only Eighth Year Graduate to Receive Medal.

EDUCATIONAL DAY JUNE 12

The Rev. C. M. Yocum Will Deliver Address at Coliseum—List of 145 Pupils.

Edgar Sunmann of Raleigh will be the proudest boy in Rush county Wednesday, June 12, which is the date which has been fixed for the annual educational day exercises. He will be the only eighth year graduate in this county who will receive a gold medal for faithful attendance. This will be his reward for not having been absent or tardy during his eight years of school life. This custom has been followed in Rush county for several years.

The exercises will be held in the coliseum in the city park this year. The commencement address will be delivered by the Rev. C. M. Yocum of the Main Street Christian church. Wagoner's orchestra of this city will furnish the music.

Belinda Crane of Milroy received the highest grade of any eighth year graduate this year. Her average was 95.8. The graduates who have the three highest averages are Milroy pupils. Joe Lyons is second highest, with 95.2, and Paul Morgan is third, 95.1. Carrie B. Brown of the Moscow school is fourth with 94.9, and Ione Brown of Manilla is fifth with 94.1.

There are a hundred and forty-five to be graduated this year. The class is smaller by twenty than was the one last year. The following are the graduates and the townships where they attended school:

Richland—Ophir Gwinup, Harry Vogel, Lola Phillips, Evangeline Lois Hildreth, Burney Wood, Harold Hite, Ethel Phillips, and Arthur Fuchthau.

Washington—Nellie Rogers, Edgar Dean McMath, Elsie Scott, LaVon Hall, Dewight L. Brooks, Grace D. Maple, Lavonne Legg, Fred Rogers, Thomas Heck and Edgar Sunmann.

Rushville—Fred Hoffman, Charles Vohland, John Lower, Forrest Havens, Orpha B. Wagoner, Cyrus Hall, Paul Cameron, Martha Rammann, Mary Rill, Florence Quyle, Agnes Foster, Clarence McMahon and Leona Hangerford.

Jackson—Merrill Northrup, Esther Junken, Leonard McCarty, Alfred Norris, Earl Prater, Gladys Green, John B. Johnson, Jr., John Banks, Elsie Abernathy, Elsie S. Newhouse, Robert M. Ellison, Mabel Winkler, Bert V. Bowen, Perry Howard Stort and Edith Ellison.

Posey—Edna Hardin, Mary Conway, Effie O'Leary, Leona Thomas, Emma Posey, Tom Saunders, Loren K. McMichael, Lena Beale, Lois Long, Edna Long, May Gardner, Della Huherd, Fannie Noble, Harry Lockwood and Edna Hendrix.

Walker—Mary E. Kuntz, Maude Green, Carl Dearinger, Fay Edwards, Ione Brown, Noble Mull, Emerson Rigby, Ermal Beach, Grace Lee Coons, Clara Hiner, William English, and Chester Alexander.

Ripley—Josiah B. Binford, Marie Pitts and Frances Parker.

Center—Guy Henry, Lisle McDaniel, Cora D. Warrick, Fay D. Whitton, Erastus Brown, Fern McBride, Clarence Atkins, Vallie Hileman, Donald F. Cohee, G. Floyd Rhodes, and Ruby M. Newhouse.

Anderson—Joe Lines, Harold Johnson, Paul Morgan, Mercer Whitman, Hubert A. McVaine, Vella Kinnett, Lois Ballenger, Norma Nordmeyer, Charles W. Ferree, Blinda Crane, Clifford Richey, June Lines, Clara M. Archey, Raymond B. Rardin, Herman Sheedy, Esther Foster, Minnie Wills, Fernie Richey, Lotie Green, Russell E. Scheibler, Mabelle Norris and Donald Bankert.

Orange—Grace Coffey, R. Fon Alter, Jessie B. Cameron, Ethel Harbert, Earl Owen, Blanch Ward, Roy C. Harbert, Edwin Ward, Walter W. Harcourt, Inez Hardy, Cezile Wiley,

ONE-HALF PRICE

We Give S. & H. Green Trading Stamps

Next Wednesday is RED-LETTER DAY.
Come to the Premium Parlor and Secure One Dollar's Worth of Stamps
FREE

This Store will be closed all day next Thursday on account of DECORATION DAY

The Corner
Store

The Mauzy Co.

The Daylight
Store

speaks very loud—in fact it has spoken so loud that these unusual Suit Bargains are being snatched up very rapidly. Don't you want to profit by our loss? This is the offering:

| | |
|------------------------------|---------|
| $27.50 and $25.00 Suits at | $13.50 |
| $20.00 Suits at | $10.00 |
| $15.00 Suits at | $7.50 |
| $12.50 Suits at | $6.00 |
| $10.00 Suits at | $5.00 |

ALTERATIONS AT THEIR ACTUAL COST

In anticipation of being neatly clad on your vacation trip, or of having a garment satisfactory in every way for fall wear, could you make a better investment? This sale closes MAY 31st—think what it means to you, and then come in.

3 Days
Only

SPECIAL DEMONSTRATION Of Wear-Ever Aluminum

3 Days
Only

Mrs. Emil will be at the 99c Store Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday to demonstrate Wear Ever Aluminum, and why it should be used, how it should be used and how much money you can save by using Wear Ever. She will prepare and serve many dainties during the time she is here and you are respectfully requested to be present on one of those days.

EXTRA SPECIAL

One and one-half quart Aluminum Sauce Pan, with handle. Regular price 35c, demonstration price

29c

EXTRA SPECIAL

Four quart Aluminum Berlin Kettle, with bail and lid. Regular price $1.35, demonstration price

98c

With every $5 purchase of Aluminum during this sale we will give gratis one only 3-quart Aluminum Preserving Kettle.

Try This Test in a
"Wear-Ever" Utensil

Put one pint of milk into a saucepan. Place over a low fire and without stirring let the milk boil down to one-quarter pint. The milk will not be scorchd.

THAT'S because aluminum is a better distributor and retainer of heat than other materials of which cooking utensils are made.

You can cook quicker and you therefore save fuel.

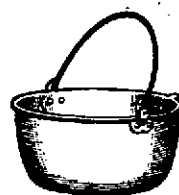

"Wear-Ever" utensils are made without joints, seams or soldered parts, from thick, hard sheet aluminum. They have no coating to peel, crack or blister. They cannot rust, cannot form poisonous compounds with acid fruits or foods, and they last a generation.

Let us supply you with the one-quart sample saucepan advertised in magazines—and show you "Wear-Ever" trade-mark.

"Wear-Ever" ware makes heavy house-keeping light.

EXTRA SPECIAL

Three quart Aluminum Preserving Kettle, with bail. Regular price 75c, demonstration price

49c

EXTRA SPECIAL

Five quart Aluminum Wind-sor Kettle, with bail and lid. Regular price $1.50, demonstration price

98c

With every $10 purchase of Aluminum during this sale we will give gratis one only 8-quart Aluminum Preserving Kettle.

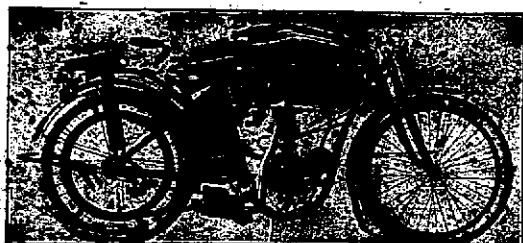

Our Extensive Line of Aluminum is Unsurpassed and Our Store is Without a Doubt Showing the Most Complete Line in this Part of the State.

THE 99 CENT STORE

SOLE AGENTS FOR WEAR EVER ALUMINUM

Buy Advertised Articles.

COME IN AND HAVE A LOOK AT THE STURDY EMBLEM---$175

Equipped with Eclipse Free Engine Clutch and Spring Seat Post. Have a few slightly used single and twin Excelsors will sell at a bargain

I also have a nice line of Bicycles at Prices That Will Surprise You. See Me at Joe Lakin's Plumbing Shop, Phone 1338, Until 6 P. M. After 6 p. m. at Motorcycle Club Room. James Foley, 105 E. Third St., Rushville, Indiana.

Theresa Headlee and Carrie B. Brown.

Union—Oletha Dukate, Clark Macey, Mildred Stewart, Harold E. Chaney, Effie Matnez, Eugene Nelson, Margaret Wall, Edna Pauline Hood, Herschel H. Peters, Clifford W. Mauzy and LaVaughn Scholl.

Noble—Omar McKibben, Garrett Ricketts, Harry Beaver, Nettie Horton, Dewey Stewart, Mabel N. Holden, Gladys McDonald, Beula Junks, Gladys Colestock, Faye Simpson, Earl Perkins and Charlie Moore.

WANTS DAMAGES.

Knightstown Banner: It is reported that Eli Archey, who lives in the Beech neighborhood, southwest of town, and who has been suffering from severe burns sustained when he tried to assist Clark Esters, the aged colored man who burned to death March 9, has filed suit or intends to do so, asking $2900 from the Esters estate. Archey was one of the first men to reach the aged man's side, and was badly burned in trying to extinguish the flames.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

PARALYSIS PROVES FATAL

Funeral of Mrs. Sam Pitts at Carthage Sunday.

The funeral of Mrs. Cemilda Pitts, age seventy-one years, who died at her home in Carthage yesterday following a stroke of paralysis, will be held at the Friends church in Carthage Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. She was a life long member of the Friends church. Burial will take place in the cemetery at Walnut Ridge west of Carthage. Mrs. Pitts is survived by her husband, Samuel Pitts and several children, three of whom are the fruits of her first marriage.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight. Sunday fair and slightly warmer.

FIGURES NOT READY YET

Some Time Before Difference in Assessment is Known.

It will be several days before Jesse Stone, the county auditor, will have tabulated the figures gathered by the assessors this year and will be prepared to give the exact gain or loss of this year's assessment over last year's. The Washington township assessor has made his return. The total assessment is $1,388,890. There are 118 poll and 139 dogs in the township.

At the special Memorial services at the Methodist church Sunday evening, Pauline Felts, who represented the high school in the state contest, will give her oration on "Gettysburg."

In some parts of Australia the telephone is regarded as an amusement rather than a necessity.